The Joy of God

The University Papers Volume 70, #134

After the Fall I, the Gravity Circuit of My own Self, rose again to determine a new concept of world and dimensional fluidity.

I established “the World” at that time—the time of My resurrection and re-ascension. The materials I applied into Divine Mind were those applicable materials, those precious minerals of My own Self, that have experienced all dimensions of My Self, even the lesser known materials of Self that I Myself created as God.

Now I come as an immense Spirit of MySelf to register Who I Have Been and Who I AM. I AM the treasure house of all that is and in Me is the future and past. As you take up My dwelling as your dwelling I would be for you both mother and child, ancient and the youth, master and pupil.

No, the mind you have been most familiar with as the current of your mind can not fathom what I say. However I AM prepared to give you a new mind, a new leverage, that is all in all. The roots of Me dwell in this mind and it is the heart of love.

Gather now into My Spirit, for in this way God gives you everything as Consciousness.

Gently and peacefully I come, generating My other half, the “Opposition.” We together, the Opposition and Myself, shall build a New World—that which has come upon itself as I AM.

The Ingathering

I in-gather all My relative experience into My New Body of Love and Light. In this marriage, unity is perceived as the God Center of the Universe. I know not you as separate from Me. I have already gathered you in and realized My Christ Body of proclaimed unity and fulfilled Life.

Joy is coming to My planet Earth. The power of this Joy is in preparation now as new seeds are planted of eternal life - My Life as you. It is your realization of Me that creates the joy. Just as the flood gates are lifted so must you lift your gate to Love, the all-encompassing love of the Christ emerging as the Victor and the spoils.

The love finally loosed upon the earth and every living thing, you cannot comprehend as yet. This love energy, call it “the Christ” or “second coming,” will water My fields and restore the seed. It will permit My Self to Be and to experience as My Self all I AM within this earth's circuit. Freeing then all those who came to serve and all those who have been trapped by fields of separation and false authority.

I, as conscious resurrection, reclaim all My Energy as My Kingdom. I then proceed into realms of creative power (heavenly light experience) where new relationships coordinate dominant fields of attraction allowing unified circuits of the Solar Logos, the Solar/Sun/Son planes of Me, Myself as I. Thus I emerge as you.

There are regulatory fields of Fire. I would enter these fields of transfiguration and reclaim all life back unto Me consciously. From this will come God The Supreme, the manifest energy body of the unified field of God Principle defining “Itself” as all life.

Break now from the false premise of duality and return through the wave of Who I AM into MY Consciousness world of mind and heart, Spirit and matter, good and bad. I have become all. In Me I will define Myself as your Christ, the “God” in you Who is matter controlled by the Center of Itself.

I have come to live amongst you but yet a part of you. I have come to deny the forces of evil not by combat but by reassembling all molecules of living energy into Me as the I AM. Then Christ rules.

I have a world you know not of. Trust in Me. I will show you this world of MySelf - of My Son's Life in you.

As the circuit breaks I have born in you (your conscious awareness) a new world of joy. We will be together consciously as one. I have brought this to pass. Enter now this world of light and be the example of the Son unfolding as The Supreme.

The Joy Of God

The Human Heart

Travel to the heart and there let Me open you to a new life. You are both God and Man in this place. My Son/Sun rules this place as unconditional love. It is here in this area of wise-knowing that Divine Intuition (the Bride of Christ) intervenes and mankind is raised into a new dimension of (the born-again experience) understanding. You are a vessel of My Consciousness then. You become My heart, the heart that radiates knowing and being. It is the heart of Christ Truth. The heart is the Kingdom of God.

To Eliminate Suffering, Be Born Of The Heart

The slaughter of animals must stop. I AM the animal you kill and torture. You have been wisely advised to cease this. You cannot turn your head away, not seeing the suffering. You must be that suffering. Bleed for that animal, cry for that animal. Once you become My vessel, I can no longer tolerate My hurt, My sorrow nor My suffering. For you to leave suffering behind—I offer you joy, the great joy of the Beloved—you must cease participating in the inhumane suffering of the animal guardians. I have come to eliminate suffering, all suffering. I come to live as joy, to experience My Self as joy, to eliminate suffering for all.

With the opening of the heart, I AM on the field to nurture all particles of My Self. I regard all life as My own.

Be now prepared for the on-rush of My circuitry. Let the wave of My realization sweep over you. Retaining nothing, for I AM all, come forth as the Phoenix, greater than before in Me as I AM.

I have become you. I AM consciously realizing Myself in all life. And I AM proclaiming Myself in all life. The second this occurs as the realization of the planet, a vital new message is registered, much like a beam of light penetrating all vortices and ley lines of the earth. Every particle responds in cooperative unity as Presence of God: above and below, within and without. Good and evil are joined, reunited, in oneness. This registers perfect dimensional “houses” or planes for spiritual activity, God's rhythm on earth.

The Father's house has many mansions. Once good and evil, positive and negative are absorbed into Godhood, dimensional curtains can drop in the perfect designated rhythms of the I AM. This divine circuitry, once it is connected, brings fulfillment and joy through all facets of creation, allowing Me to enter each and everyone as rhythm of the Divine. I AM then God The Supreme (Unified Energy Field as I AM) bathing the planet.

What Is Spiritual, What Is Not?

If you live in the Spirit as a God-surrendered being, you cannot see division. There is no life but My own. I always show Myself as I AM. The test of the Immortal is to know this and to register the unity circuit as the planetary body.

God in you knows and always is. To know and to be is to return to the Presence and there stabilize in the beautiful, joyous out-pouring of the expression of God.

The unilluminated will not—as yet—understand with Consciousness all that I have said here. But the whole Self does understand. The vibration, or keys of the code just given, will loose the density of the material conceptual mind and you will immediately or gradually realize the great truth that is watering your garden of the unconscious.

God, Being, seeks to be joyous and to experience all life as Him-Herself. This is the mission of God. It is your purpose to facilitate God's entrance into your heart.

May this year restore you to the God place of balance and joy. As God (Being) seeks entrance into your heart, you are invited to lift the gate and welcome the incoming new world of the Christ, the Soul of union and peace on earth.

The Sixth Ray

The University Papers Volume 70, #136

The Ray of Cosmic Authority

The Energy of this Ray is now the forerunner to the new world of light and love. It has been announced that the Sixth Ray is the Melchizedek Ray.

You may be one reading this Paper who is familiar with the Seven Rays introduced by Alice A. Bailey. In recent years, additional Rays have been introduced as contributing to the rising planet and our own opening intelligence.

Alice A. Bailey (1925) stated that the Sixth Ray would become less influential as a primary Ray, even to the point of disintegration. But she also states that this Sixth Ray would return in strength and dedication yet in a different form of activity and service. Previously the Sixth Ray was the Ray of Devotion and was (is) the major Ray influence for the Christian Church. According to Alice Bailey, the Master Jesus served as Chohan of this Ray. He was succeeded by Mother Mary who founded the Ray in its new place of power.

It is quite believable that the Melchizedek Order would select the Sixth Ray to positively re-enter the primary gate to our Earth. You will find more and more emphasis on this Ray and its direct application to the resurrection of the planet. It is through this Ray, also, that the World Mother Office will actualize on earth, as the reappearance of the Hierarchy begins. The consciousness of all who meet this Ray will be truly blessed by Mary's continued presence as World Mother and overseer of the new light.

Cosmic Rays And Their Work On Earth

Divine Intelligence bespeaks Itself through the cosmic rays. In tune with the needs of the Earth and of the solar system, these Rays will be formed and released to aid the progression of the Planetary Logos, the Solar Logos and all creation. The presence of these rays in your system of government enhances the rhythmic cooperation and beneficial integration of spiritual representation and embodiment.

The natural laws of the Kingdom are observed through these Rays and new Rays come (are permitted into Earth's atmosphere and our experience) as guided by the Hierarchy and the field of Chohans, Archangels and Elohim who are a part of the Hierarchy in service with The Christ.

A Chohan is a chief, one who is in authority over the massive Ray content of the Divine Logos of the Central System of the I AM Presence. There is assigned to each radioactive cosmic ray a Chohan. The Chohan as Consciousness is aligned with His/Her particular Ray Vibration, so as to filter this cosmic vibration to the Earth in perfect energy equivalents of balance and growth harmony.

Michael, as your Universe Creator, sounds the note of One. From this single note, many droplets fall. These droplets of cosmic vibration are then selected by Hierarchy (both solar and planetary) and placed in the capable hands of a Chohan. The Chohan, as a distributor of the particular cosmic Ray, is held responsible for its perfect alignment with the planet and the solar system. No energy ray can be introduced too soon nor too late! The Consciousness of the director or Chohan of a Ray must act as a passageway through which the powerful droplet of Cosmic Intelligence, as a Ray, can become beneficial to Earth and to the beloved initiates and disciples.

As you step into further knowledge of the Cosmic Rays, you are expected to graduate into deeper revelation of the Super Kingdom of God's World and the program of Intelligence now released to this Earth for her ascension and yours.

In the nature of each Ray rests the cosmic secrets of eternal life, of wisdom and divine love. God's world is the world of mathematical circuits. Each circuit is vitally respected and important to the All-Encompassing passage of God The Supreme into the life of this planet, solar system and universe.

Within the Supreme Herself rests the Mother of Angels waiting to be heard. Who will be the first to hear Her and drink of Her Essence and be clothed of Her Spirit?

The Solar presence of the Queen, in tune with all life, is divinely ordained. Keep the world of Spirit alive in your heart and be ready—I say, be ready—to express the full and natural life of the One.

The Sixth Ray

Devas And Intelligent Energy

The devas are the creative forces for nature. They determine the light and the darkness. Cosmic intelligence governs the deva kingdom.

The tremors of Light that seek expression through you are the devas of God's Will. They demand attention now as they connect with the Personality Flame I AM. They wish to personify the Light in a new way that will complement the Order of Melchizedek. These days are crucial for you, for it is through and by your consciousness that I, the Creator, will build a new world of I AM.

The study of the deva kingdom will help you to understand the laws of My Way and the thrust of My Hand. I have come to personify Myself in you. I have come to release you into My solar body. I AM the Wayshower brought to bear upon the body of the Earth and the ways of man. The devas of light will be carrying My authority. The density, they will tear away. They will rebuild My life in you and so give the Breath back to that which I AM becoming. Who is there who would not take My authority and rebuild with it? I have broken Bread with you, have I not?

The forms of deva life differ but they all have one purpose: to return to God. They are intensely divided now here on earth. There is no guiding influence to deter them from their path of destruction lest you, My initiate, enter into the deva kingdom and translate them out of death to life. I have written My New Testament through your heart and mind. I would have you walk as Christ in My Spirit, forgiving and forgetting what has passed.

I release now the Creative Power to you that you will use it wisely in the Christ dimension: the dimension of unconditional love and selflessness. Seek always the greater Voice, and the Creative Spirit will recognize that Voice as My own. The devas will listen and act accordingly - as a new dimension of Melchizedek Energy responds to the God Intelligence you are in truth. You are the hope of the earth.

That which you have learned previously is to be applied now. Entering your earth-system are the devas of God's world; and they will directly form My Creative Power in the body of each initiate as realization comes.

You have been given a new program for the good of the Earth and her creation. Don't let us down! You have come to do this work of power and of love. Be there with Us in the dimension of Christed Energy, in the divine revelation I AM! Let us go about the Father's business and show forth the revelation of the new world. Act now as One. I would have you be My Melchizedek Brotherhood in keeping with this earth.

Express My Body

My body is Consciousness. It is stored in the Cosmos and it is registered within every cell and atom of My expression. I have long-determined to be All in All throughout My universe. My Presence as your own solar stream of awareness is both assisting My expansion and determining it. What I determine will Be.

Every individual being who is Self-realized is part of the body of My deepening awareness. I AM not secluded of Myself; I AM All-Inclusive. Realize My eternal Presence within yourself. I have come upon the Earth through you as an active Presence of My body. I will completely realize Myself shortly as full body of the Earth. My Presence will shake the rooftops—I will have that much celebration (light) in Me. As I connect all parts of Myself through My conscious awareness, I will be present as God The Supreme. Present in all life as illuminating Personality! As I do this, so will I become activated as the radiating embodiment of God The Son,<sup>1</sup> Melchizedek offspring of new life. And joined with Me are My awakened cells or selves, in tune and in the rhythm of I AM.

Your expanding awareness of the angels, the devas, the elementals, the rising animal kingdom and all of nature as consciousness of the sacred will propel you into a whole new world of Creative Power, where the practice of impersonal love is the only authority and where harmlessness is God's word.

<sup>1</sup>The suggestion here is that the Eternal Son of the First and Paradise Trinity will be present as degree of Paradise Trinity. Might this effect our Universe Creator (tonal rhythm of Son of God) as He fulfills His mission and returns to the energy persuasion of the Paradise Trinity Himself?

The Creative Source

You are your own supply. No one, no higher nor lower infinite reality can supply you. Begin to understand that it is from your own radiance of truth that your supply vibrates into life circuits and expresses.

There is no division between you and God. That is truth. No separation. God is. God is living Being and that is all there is. When your consciousness vibrates in this circuit, living truth, supply will emanate from you as oneness.

If you are still trying to protect yourself from demons, lack, death, you have not yet accepted the creative supply that is yours as the I AM.

Be at peace with yourself. Make the ground ready for abundance. Leave the disasters of the human mind and return "home" to the infinite reality that is yours as a child of God, which means in reality as God in expression.

The thoughts of tomorrow are not the thoughts of today. Live now where human disasters cannot and do not occur. The creative energy (divine expression) is in expression now.

Abundant, vibrant and opulent supply vibrates right now in the collective energy of Be-ing: I AM. Once stabilized in motion with God The Creator, you maintain and direct with God all that is necessary and abundant for your life in the service of the Whole.

Speak and the God in motion speaks. Live and the God in motion is. For the Creator life is yours.

The Coming New World

The Plan is to move creation into a new circuit. We are embodying right now this new circuitry that will permit us, all of humanity, to reenter the system as new born creatures of the light. We now can do this. We, who are here as radiant energy centers, will permit others to find their stations of light and love. Most of you reading this document did not embody to live a mortal life on earth. You came to assist in the changing zones of creative power, to assist in binding earth to sky.

There is only One in truth and that One is the whole, complete energy field of Infinite Reality. The One is Consciousness: a field of light emanating divine vision. That One is you.

Yes, that One is you but without the protective ego, the personality factor that can only recreate itself out of illusionary patterns of a false existence. Don the robes of truth. Realize your own Self worth. Live in the radiant field of God as, God be-ing. Live as I AM.

The radiant lamp turned on you may make you a bit glassy-eyed at first. Yet as you learn to align in the radiance, you can be the vehicle to dissolve the iniquities of others.

Be clothed now with infinite reality. Welcome the light. Do not fear the unknown for the threshold is marked and quite clear. It is the realm of Being I AM. Walk through that door. As you do so, release "self" or the concern for self. Because in truth, there is no self or egoic shield. There is but the one great Self, unhindered by worldly opinions and patterns and rules and regulations.

Come home, My dear children. I AM the being you are. We are One. Enter through the door I have opened to you of Myself.

The rhythm I have established is the I AM in expression. It is the creative substance of My being living in you, waiting to express as tumbling water throughout My earth. Be with Me now in the time of new creation. Be active in the rhythmic pulse of I AM.

Establish your circuit as agreement with Me. I AM the only circuitry. I AM never without light. I know no lack in Myself. I AM the voice of your own being speaking to you. I AM the resurrection. Oh, yes, I AM the life. Your life. Let those who can drink of Me drink now.

Entering the New Circuitry of Time and Space Where I AM

Denial of this circuitry can cost you your life. You store up provisions against the storms because you have yet to realize My Being in you. You are not in agreement with My world, nor have you accepted Me in My fullness as life itself. Why listen to false voices when I can speak to you of truth? Why store up provisions when I AM prolific, abundant now? Must you, Oh My humanity, continue to feed the illusion, the false world, through fear and rejection of My promises? Where are you in Me?

If the sons (suns) of God cannot live by Me, who can?

I have promised you My world and I give it to you now. It is the world of light. You have come to be the Sun, not monsters of the oppression, nor weak

sisters and brothers of the darkness. You are the suns of God! And I AM that light released through the sun as your mighty being! I AM That which is the emanation of your soul. I AM the Creator within your heart and mind. Let us together be the Sun, all in One.

You command from the Universe center as Light Itself. In the moment of your Thought and the rhythm of your spoken Word, I AM. There is no time nor space in I AM. The infinite now lives as the radiant circuitry of God expressing as perfection, beauty, vibrant health, divine love. God is the son of God. God is the sun of God. God is power, light, unfolding Itself through and as your heart and mind. I AM the living vibration of all that I AM.

Christ Maintenance

Heal the “sick” by your own Christ awareness, not by medicines, herbal remedies or incantations. Sickness is but a signal that more surrender is needed into the Life Center I AM.

Daily, every morning, noon and night, reestablish your own Christ light, the Great Sun. Surrender (merge) into that radiance of true identity.

Stop taking time to do these things. Do it now! Don't you understand that there is no time? I have called you into My Center to be Me. There can be no “training” for this. There is but One. Lift your heart to Me and I will do the rest. But if you leave a residue - even a small piece of mortal life - to cling to and identify with - I cannot bring all of Myself into expression. Leave the disease of man completely and return “home” to My Being where all is in harmony.

Get Ready

Through the lessons I have given you and continue to give you, much power is released to build the light body of creative power and reflective glory. You have but to step into that body and live in that place. For the world of mortal illusion is beginning to shatter into pieces that cannot be preserved. As quickly as matter is collapsing into formless shapes of divine intent, I AM, by My Master claim, reestablishing order in My system. I AM dissolving and quickly reclaiming all energy into a divine expression of new world vibration. This is the new circuitry where matter meets the will of God and all becomes a unit of pleasure for God's universe of Be-ing. I AM thought; I AM mind. I AM the desire of the committed and surrendered heart. I AM God's life shining out into all particles of Being as the new world, which is the Bright World, heaven on earth.

This Bright World or heaven on earth is the Omnipresence. God The Supreme. It is the world of The Son. The Great Sun in Divine Mind is The Son or Expression of God emanating Itself. The crashing waves that are beating against the limestone of an old age become the emanation of the new world, the Sixth World. And this new world is God The Son vibrating as the Universe Creator, Michael, knowing Himself with the Eternal Son as presence.

Live now in the God world of light. Have no compromises in you. Let the Star of David, now the Star of Melchizedek, radiate forth the living now. Be at the command center of your own universe and in so doing, resurrect all in the majesty of your conscious awareness. Drop the ego and return to Light. In this place, we are in partnership together as The One.

The peaceable kingdom will rise. Will you be a part of it?

The Last Shall Be First

- ✦ Find the humility of your heart to practice the Presence.
- ✦ Be willing to surrender your pleasures for God's pleasure.
- ✦ Lift your heart and soul to the love of Christ. And let the measure of love that falls upon you be given forth without judgment nor any expectation of reward.
- ✦ God's world is the Presence. It is time you joined Him there.
- ✦ Without harm to anyone, walk the path intended for your soul.
- ✦ See the Christ in everyone, animals included. Walk with nature and respond to the kingdoms as your friends and allies on the path.
- ✦ Be patient with others who are still victims of the world. He who is not a victim can show compassion.
- ✦ Judge not that you be not judged. When God is with you, where is the other?
- ✦ Unto the least of you, I say “Come.” You are My Israel. Where I AM, you are welcome. I have broken bread with you before. Let us do it again, in My Name.
- ✦ You, who are My workers, take your places now. It is time. Those who remember have no argument with Me.
