Introduction to Immortality

From IMMORTALITY - The Search for Life

Your immortal body is your I AM presence. It is your presence of God in you as your vessel, vehicle and appearance. Take on the body immortal now. Live your immortality. Be free of the death cycle.

But you must want to do this. You are released from mortality as you desire and are willing to be released and set free.

Focus on the living Spirit of God - the God presence - as your energy, your strength, your health, and your body. Practice this. Every time you want or are tempted to treat a problem or focus on your mortal appearance, let go and let God as your Being express.

Why do you suppose the Master Jesus said, "Destroy this temple (his material body appearance) and I will restore it in three days." Because the physical level was not his focus, Jesus knew that the presence of God was his body and would out-picture as he let it. You will always have a body. This may be new to your understanding, yet it is so. Your body is a tissue of God; it is the idea of God in you. Consciousness will always prevail. In releasing your thought about your body appearance and aligning with your body as God Consciousness - your God Consciousness - the vital force around you and within you will give you a form. Whether you are on earth in a busy city, in a temple atmosphere or resting in the etheric realms, you will have a body that responds to the necessary vibrations and laws of where you are standing.

Your Christ body is of etheric consciousness, vibrating as consciousness webs of creative power where illusion cannot penetrate. You can "come and go" when you understand this divine principle. You can ascend and descend, and you can materialize and dematerialize as you so desire and will it in the light of I AM.

You do not have to wait. Those who are adept at frequency change will be with you as you find your new wings in the immortality of your Soul. Be Sons of God now as Jesus was and is. Walk free of mortal thoughts. Ascend to the Fifth Dimension as an immortal and as My Beloved Son, expression of perfect Life. Reclaim your right as a Melchizedek to live as an Immortal.

The act of translating death into life is the challenge of this moment.

The Immortal Workshop I

Today you are an Immortal... Read on...

Throughout the ages man has searched for his immortality. Those who have found their immortality in past incarnations will be asked to live this immortal circuit as shining suns of a new creation. The power of the Light will ignite others until all that is left is the Easter of the soul.¹

Beyond the Veil

Why hasn't it occurred to humanity that we have the right and power to deny any program of the world? You are not subject to any of the world's thought forms and beliefs unless you choose to live in a world of darkness and ignorance.

What human beings have forgotten and are now called upon to remember is that they have free will to live in a God-centered world (a world of light and creative expression).

Yes, you can choose to walk the immortal path and your decision will be honored and supported.

Take a moment and ask yourself the following questions:

- Have you been puzzled and

I AM always with you but you must know it, and in knowing you become immortal.

confused by the life-death program on earth?

- What has been your attitude about social security, retirement funds, life insurance or any insurance, for that matter?
- Have you been one who has caved in to the ideas and beliefs of others, including religion and security?
- Or have you been a rebel, standing outside the box, and always ready for the new, the next challenge of creation?
- Have doctors, alternative medicines and supplements been your first choice when an illness or symptom of a physical/mental disorder appeared?
- Do you believe God will punish you if you don't do the right thing, or have you been willing to step beyond in your search for Truth?
- Are you an Immortal? If your answer is "yes," have you recently awakened to this reality or have you always known?

You are a powerful being. You can change your program from death to life.

And you will please God by doing just this.

The Principle of Letting

For those who participated in the online Abundance Workshop, you concentrated and focused your intention on changing your attitude. As an example, so all attending this workshop can be familiar with the previous intent and focus, here is that intent:

You have a right to abundant life and it is God's desire to express as your abundant supply, blessing you in all ways. In knowing this for yourself, you know it for all life. And all life is blessed.

- Feel your power now! -

Vibrationally, we on earth have entered a new reality where the Code of the Mother reigns supreme. This means that the following words declare the Law for your life and the way of the Universe:

¹(From Immortality, The Search for Life, Chapter I, page 1. Available through the University of Melchizedek.)

Let - Let Divine Mind guide you in all ways. Let God do the work for you. Let the perfection of Being express. Let your Christ within, your I AM presence and divinity, shine now as who you are. Let healing, let your abundance, flow. Let divine order be restored. Let your immortal life, the truth of Being, vibrate and declare itself as you. Let Love!

Accept and Receive - Accept and receive the God Presence within your heart as who are. Accept and receive that God loves you and Her love is unconditional. Accept and receive your full inheritance as the divine expression of the Creator who I AM. Accept and receive happiness and fulfillment now. Accept and receive your oneness with God.

Realize and Release - Realize and release your Christ within, your divinity and all-powerful Self. Realize and release every good thought that comes to your mind and let it manifest for your happiness on earth. Realize and release that you are an immortal come to earth to build a new world! Realize and release that you are a being of Light, not subject to death or decay.

God wants you to live as an Immortal here on earth now. In knowing this for yourself, you know it for all life. And all life is blessed.

Open and Be Build your enthusiasm for life and have joy!

Death will join you in life, as the dying process is the process of change, of transformation, new elevation of consciousness, surrender, materializing and dematerializing and inter-dimensional travel. In the ascension process “good and evil” join, “death and life” join, “good and bad” join into the light of Creative Power and Divine Love.

You will learn - if this is new to you - that in the Christ Circle, the spiraling energy field of the I AM Presence, all is swept up into Being, and Love is the transformer. The physical body is subject to your consciousness and the atoms, particles and DNA fall under the Code of Melchizedek. In the vibratory tone of I AM, Be-ing takes command of all forces. Death is used as a stepping stone to new expression right now, in this moment. You will spend no time in the grave if you will awaken to the centers of light-life within you and take charge. Come to the Vibration of I AM.

Assignment

Like an eagle perched atop a tree, keep watch. The lost chord is “I AM,” the Om within your heart chakra, the AUM, the beginning and the end joined as in the Order of Melchizedek. The Master Jesus, High Priest of Melchizedek, said, “I AM the beginning and the end.” You carry that essence of the Order within your soul and within every cell of your body!

I AM is too sacred to utter unless it be accompanied by the Holy Spirit, the God Presence.

Keep watch that you use the sacred name of God within as power and light only when God is with you expressing through your Inner Voice as I AM. Keep that power alive. This is your first Key to living as an Immortal.

The Immortal Workshop 2

Be the Immortal You Truly Are

Take Authority

Remove all doubt from your system. Take command! Your body must vibrate complete awareness and subject itself to no dis-ease, illusion of decay and death.

Take command! All atoms, molecules and particles of illumination belong to you. They are your substance and must be controlled by your awareness. All and everything within your awareness must be functioning under your command and not another! No thought form that is not of your direction and consciousness should dominate or in any way influence the outpicturing of your form. You are in command. I placed you in command at the Beginning when I knew Myself as you.

And this I say to you: Every particle under your command must be transformed immediately as a light particle of your higher self. Place all your thoughts under your command. Learn to take authority for everything you do and say and learn. And take authority for your appearance. Go back to the beginning and resume your position as the Light of I AM.²

What's Stopping You?

- Stop living with death.
- Stop believing in outer authority.

- Stop listening to lies and innuendoes that connect you to a false world.
- Stop putting off what you can do today.
- Stop buying insurance, which insures your passing without the victory of translation and ascension.
- Stop defending the ego, which constitutes your attachment and belief in a world that you have created.

Step into Life Eternal, the Immortal Life “I AM”

Begin to see yourself as an Immortal, a member of the “Deathless Race”:

- A race that has declared itself at one with God forever;
- A race that breathes the Life Essence of the God Presence into its lungs and survives on the Breath;
- A race that seizes every opportunity to express immortal life and speak about it.

You embody the Deathless Race as an Immortal.

You are the People of the New World, the living example of My First creation.

Law: Once you have completely died to the mortal illusion of self and found your dignity in the God transcendence, there can be no physical death as you have experienced it on this planet. The process of overcoming physical deterioration and death is through the translation of the body into light.

The Law of Translation tells you that your obedience to God's Word and your positive rejection of all else causes the Presence of God, or the Cosmos, to release Itself through you - through every aspect of your physical make-up. Once every cell and organ of your present mortal body - the body of this world - is governed by God's Word (Will), the Great Self or “Self beyond the self” is your conscious experience, your revelation of Truth. All is in readiness for this shift of consciousness. The love radiation of your heart sounds the call; and God hears and divinely lifts you into Him/Herself and graduates you into other spheres of living. All is in readiness for this moment.

The great master Teacher Krishnamurti tells us that we live in a world of chaos. To remove ourselves from this chaos, we must let go of our image and our image-maker. We must realize that the observer and the observed are one and the same. And we must let go of these images which have defined our world. As Jesus has counseled, We must lose our self to find our self; we must die to be reborn in the Spirit. We are now at that frontier of New Being. Can you feel your soul's inner push to "get on with it"?

Then, defying gravity, reach into your higher self and loose the chains of poverty (laziness), suffering (attachment to self), and all identification to the image you have created and accepted as who you are. Your parents may be involved in this one, so be kind!

Consider This

To be a prisoner of the death program is to conform to the patterns of a shortened life. Fasten now to the Creator in you and the power of the energy that is eternal life: a continuous free expression of Be-ing with no stops and no boundaries of the mind and heart!

- What might you do if there was no death?
- What might your contributions be if there was no aging process, no dis-ease, no beginning and no end?
- What if you could choose your time to gather up your body form and reassemble your body by your will in another dimension, planet or even universe?
- What if you could choose your own time of departure, leaving without a trace that you had been?

Commanding your energy field will assist you in remembering that no man must die. There is an order to life; this order is vibrating Melchizedek. The way has been shown. Follow that way and be about the Father's business. Let no man tell you how to think. Restore your ability to be!³

Hanging On to Mortality

Let us understand one thing and that is that an Immortal lives in the moment. There is no past or future for an Immortal. The moment or the "now" contains the essence of God Eternal. The Creative Power moves through that essence of Fire and Love as food, life and nourishment for the Immortal. When you are aligned to the I AM Presence and take your guidance and your solar identity from that I AM Presence, God, I AM, the God "I AM" Presence lives through you as you as the Now. Can you see and understand why your alignment to the Inner Voice and Its Creative Power is an absolute necessity as an Immortal?

Imagine a sphere where you wait for God's Voice, Divine Intelligence, before you utter one word or take one step. Imagine a consciousness that is not surrounded by many thought forms but is completely clear of all battles, images and false authorities. Imagine, if you will, being present without a past or future. Imagine standing and living in an intelligence sphere where there is always the

Crossing Over and Back Again¹

Now Is the Time to Make Your Ascension

Your immortality is your work. You are the example of the new race of humanity who has overcome belief in death and walks now in the circumference of The One.

You are the Center and the Light of all life. And any contact with you, as a universe citizen of the New World, will cause immediate response within crowds of people or from an individual you are speaking with. You cannot realize at this moment the unsettling factor you carry and demonstrate as you take on the immortal body, the Christed body of Light and Life.

You are now a Jesus Initiate from the Solar Regions of the Creator Son. This is the value you have placed on yourself, as you have ascended to the Light of a new awareness and creative intent.

Demonstrate now the alignment with the Creator that you embody. This is important - ESSENTIAL FOR THE PLANET AND YOURSELF - for you have now entered a NEW LIFE where the Christ is your identity.

It is now possible for human beings to transfer into their Light bodies immediately [without physical death] by choosing to do so.

By refocusing their energy into their vital bodies, humans CAN move out of the lower planes of existence into the Christ Plane, the union of Light with Man.⁴

You will find that you are quickly moved to your solar assignment and destination, as it is absolutely imperative that the heart of man be opened. But stand ready to serve as an Immortal without barriers of any kind. And in this way will you be the government to the ascended planet.

You are initiates of a new order and that order proclaims itself through your heart as God in Man, the GodSelf.

Teachers of the New World and the Light Angels

You are embarking on a new assignment. We have been preparing you for ages - not just this incarnation, but many others. Are you ready to be a leader among men?

- Human death is no more.
- You have the power to come and go.
- You are consciously creating your body appearance and can govern all particles that make up your temporal body as it appears at this moment.
- You can rise and fall in consciousness to meet the need.
- And you are trained to light all four corners of this Earth.
- Be about your assignment and live prosperously through the name (nature and example) of Jesus.

Those words I have just given you are wake up words to your soul who can identify now as your immortal Self. The curtain has been lifted. You are an example of My new Life, operating in a new system of Self government and Order.

Light Angels walk with you. They are your assistants in determining your dimensional frequency and immediate response to that frequency. They will vitalize your cells and your alignment with the Creator as you give permission to them to do this.

You will soon remember - or newly discover - the ability to come and go, to materialize and dematerialize, to leap through space and expand or disengage time as we know it here on planet Earth. You are a messenger of time and space - of a new freedom - and you will FEEL this freedom in your heart. Solar regions will open to you as never before.

Thus, BY YOUR EXAMPLE you will teach.

The Immortal Gate

The Immortal Gate opens when you have released your mortality and accepted the Christ presence within you as your Life - the Life that has overcome death. You live in the Christ dimension as immortal life and there is no looking back. The seeds of immortality have sprung alive in you. You have awakened to your immortality and your vital force knows this. There is no looking back. God's world now is the center of your being, the rapture of your soul. The Immortal Gate has opened and you see and know that this world, the world of the Immortal, looks to God the Healer and the Designer of all life. Energy becomes the God presence and the organs of your body respond to the Presence for continual restoration and baptism in the Holy Spirit. *As an Immortal you are constantly being renewed and revitalized as Life itself.*⁵

How Do I Practice Being an Immortal?

- I think my own thoughts and seek my Inner Voice as the truth circuit of my being.
- I am completely free of a n y a n d A L L dependencies such as a “permanent” salary, pension or savings account. I am independent of all that because I know my source is my consciousness of God in me.

- My physical and mental life is free of all family history and I relate only to my Christ body, which is my body of light.
- I have no plans for my future because I live in the now, where Life is expressing in all its perfection as the form complete.
- I have chosen to take charge of my life as God in me; and I reject any and all thought forms of limitation, death and disease.
- I die daily so as to live in the New World of Love and Light.
- Now I know and can say with conviction, I AM the resurrection and the life!

Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

(Matthew 5:16, George M.
Lamsa Translation)

As an Immortal you will do this. You are on special assignment for The Christ and this Day is yours. Forget the past. You are solar and you are grounded in light. When you are with others, you will send a radio code, electrical in nature, that says to them, "You, also, are an immortal."

You are the light of the Earth and the substance of a New World. Your station is the Light. Your code of Intelligence is immortality. It is God's will (Intent) that your life as an Immortal begin. Sing the Immortal Song to others even as I have sung it to you.

Assignment: Make note of how you are affecting other people by your consciousness of everlasting light and your identification as an Immortal.

I live in the free world of Light where I am an Immortal,
Self-governed.

I receive my thoughts and consciousness from my Higher Self who I AM.

I live in the Creator's formed intent: the Divine
Self I AM.

Free of death and disorder, I serve as an Immortal Being.

I AM the Son and the Sun.

I AM the Christ.

Unknown, the Silence, pervading everything and the Emptiness to be filled!

Bear witness to Life by being Life. Explode with LIFE! Step now beyond the boundaries of self - of self-images and demands upon others. Release your (perhaps hidden) desire to control. Do not fear this living death I offer you. It is the way to LIFE in all its convictions!

Meditation

In your imagination, let yourself travel to that point of initiation where you are standing alone. There is no insight and there are no thought forms that disturb the Silence of the Presence. You feel the Presence, and It is soft and wonderful. Your body tingles with pleasure and you are at peace and perfectly content to "wait on the Lord" (Word). And though it does appear that you are alone and no one is about, in the Presence that pervades this sphere, you sense community and a relationship of Group Spirit, of all those joined in harmony and in service.

You are a powerful being. You can change your program from death to life.

And you will please God by doing just this.

EXCERPT

Introduction

The way of the Immortal is not the way of the world. Immortals are connected into an entirely different screen of events and will not react to clustering thought forms of material, self-defacing mortal attitudes of death and decay.

These ones are ageless and feel no age. They are rebuffed by their consciousness that tells them they will die and that they must prepare for their death throughout their life span here on earth.

Many of these Immortals have reincarnated to bring the consciousness of death to an end. Their assignment is as follows:

Go into the Earth and change her program to Life Eternal. Go into the Earth and give human beings the understanding that the mortal life with its suffering and misuse of the Creative Power is causing untold suffering to the planet as well as to creation. Go into Earth and realize as a Group Energy that when joined with God, as a blazing Sun of Light, there can be no death. God's World maintains Itself as Itself. And all who partake of the Light will be named Immortal and forever released from the gravitational pulls of separation from the God Force or Love. God-Man, or the GodSelf (I AM) is the World of Light. It is the singular life.

The shift from energy in its lowest, most inert degree, into the God Force of Being (the Breath of Life), transforms the lowly human into a god, a god of Love, a god of Light. Energy to the Immortal is God Being on the Breath. Here in these chapters of the Immortal Workshop, more than

The following lesson material was initially released to participants who subscribed to the online workshop. Because of the effectiveness of this program and the enthusiastic reception it received, I have been guided to bind these lessons in a book form for all to contemplate and enjoy.
