The Body Immortal And Forever Young

Take possession of your body. Every cell and molecule, tissue, organ, call your own. Claim all back that it too may ascend with you. As mortal tissue is drawn away and remembered not, go forth a new day and call your body form, that has served you well as mortal, into you that it may be reborn as the light.

All things must come home to Me. I have said this before. That means even the smallest atom must be renewed by Me. Take claim of all that is you, even the smallest atom. Know that I AM in that atom vibrating freely. I AM a Minister of Life!

Celebrate through every living cell the perfection of I AM. God calls all home into Itself. Lovingly and with patience reclaim your life. You have been reseeded in God's vibrant identity as the light of the world. This is your heritage, your plan. Take the plan for the light shall proclaim itself through all parts of your being. Nothing is left behind. Nothing! Come to the center and reclaim your life. Say: I AM.

THE SPECIALS Volume 4, no.12

Your body now is a vehicle for the light. It can no longer hold old ideas. It is bathed in light now, the very expression of God's voice. I AM Spirit! each cell proclaims. And light revolves through each cell one as each one begins to express the divinity of itself: the Christ consciousness in a proclamation of light, of immortality, yea of no death.

You are birthing a new body now! A body so beautiful that it is wondrous to see. You will swim with the dolphins in this body and play with the whales. And all of God's children in the ocean and the sea, in the rivers and the streams will love you because they will see themselves in you: joyous and free.

Behold the body of light! Behold that light consciousness as it is manifesting its own body! Here now is a new day. This is a day of light, of evolution in the human sphere as Man, consciousness itself, ascends into light and takes the body into the light as immaculate form.

Be clothed in radiance. Behold the light and with this light move and create beautiful objects upon this earth. Be souls of light now. This is the coming of the Lord. It is the great light of Sananda. It is the Solar Logos, and it is the Christ dimension for you. Be centered in the light. It is your consciousness. You are as the sun.

Remember that all that I AM, you are, and I shine forth as abundance, prosperous living. Behold I am opulence vibrating myself as beauty and divine love. Be clothed in light now and know that in this light, you are affluent. And as light you claim and it is. And those who know say "amen." We are gathered together this morning to proclaim the unification of soul, mind and body. Let the body, my body of light fulfill its mission on earth as the glory stream of the All Mighty. Be centered. Proclaim the light in you. All cells take on the light now and be as one community as a cathedral of joy and love.

And remember that Spirit does not have to be serious and somber. You can jive with the Spirit as long as you are centered in the Creative Spirit and expressing as an artistic expression of the soul. Sometimes it is very difficult to be free and laugh and skip and jump and still be centered.

I often see so many somber faces trying to be spiritual. And I wonder if people aren't afraid of their energy and so they think they have to be very, very silent and you know very, very serious and have very serious music on so they can meditate. But when we can trust ourselves, really trust ourselves in the Spirit, then we can laugh and have a wonderful time together. I hope more and more people take on that joy of the spirit and that light of the soul. Because the more we try to be spiritual, the less we are. Really, that's true. But when you laugh -- be conscious that you are with others who share your environment. It is important to be conscious of your attunement with all life and that you have an important place within that circle of life. Let your laugh become a symphonic sound, a contribution to the whole symphony of praise and celebration that is the Circle's Song.

Let Me express. Let Me feed My sheep. Let Me shine. Let Me. Let Me. Let Me. Stay in that dimension where I can be, where you and I are together as oneness, unity, joy, happiness, healing.

A way to keep your energy "up" is through the ceremony of praise and gratitude. Say, "Thank you." Say thank you for that which has not yet appeared. Know and say thank you. Thank the elements for forming the light! Give thanks for all life in expression. Say thank you often and mean it. Say thank you to all creation. It may seem to be a dark day for you but say "thank you." You'd be surprised in what changes a "thank you" can make!

In God consciousness, the only authority is you. Essentially you are the maker and the creator, the be-ing I AM. And if you let My light fall what chance have I of bestowing My light on others? When you walk down the street, shine and your music will be heard. Catch the joy of the dolphin. Begin to free Willy within yourself and be an angel of My light.

The Moment That Christ Was Born On Earth

A tiny child born on earth. What was the miracle of this? And why did Earth shake so in that moment?

I was born a savior unto men.

Whose voice speaks? What manner of child is this? And are there many children today, all speaking with this same voice, initiating us into a new world of creative power and divine love?

Two thousand years ago--as time passes--a life was given to this planet, a word that was so significant that it has lingered with us.

I gave you My Self.

The day we must remember is Christmas in our hearts. For if we can do this, we will discover the secret to eternal life, immortality and transformation.

If you will live in me and I in you, then earth peace will be inevitable.

There will be no death on planet Earth, no cries of the children suffering to be heard, no burials into the ground, no weeping and wailing.

On the day I was born, I made you perfect in me. We are consummated in the higher realms as One. Know this and you are free.

The Earth was flooded with light for a moment when Jesus was born. Every single cell of Earth lit up and welcomed Him in. Not one was left untouched. Not one was forgotten. Golden light permeated everything and compassion was born.

To this love you are dedicated and to this heart. I radiate my Self to you that you might be born in me. Together we are One.

Jesus was never crucified. He could not be. He was light forgiving this land and its people. He dwelt amongst us as the light. He was called wonderful to the degree that you are wonderful in me.

I have come again. This time as I AM in you to transfigure this land and complete my mission. I will not return to my Father until all returns with me consciously. I have come as the Christ in you and I AM with you as Sananda, Lord of Life.

Be ye restored to the Beginning. Ancient of Days, take this Scroll and read...

I, the Ancient of Days, read the word of light. Sananda takes the Office of Planetary Prince. He governs with his heart and he brings life into a formation of the one Son who God wills you to be. Solen Aum Solen.

Peace and love be unto all on this day. The light still shines!

THE SPECIALS Volume 4, no.20

(Crystal speaking)

As the sun rises I'll tell this little story. When I went through my "cracking of the diamond" and a very dramatic awakening in 1967, I found myself — without understanding why — going out to my driveway in Beverly Glen (Los Angeles) and looking up at the sun. And I'd say to myself, why am I looking up at the sun? What is it that I'm trying to remember? And oh I was trying to remember. I did not understand at that time that it was the teachings from many, many, many decades back of immortality. For this is the secret of the sun, the solar magic of your heart, the declaration of the day.

We are now emerging as the Christ, the solar sun. The great and wonderful, beneficent, the light of the world, the light of our universe.

This year begins the initiation of our Solar Sun in the Heart of humanity. It is a great initiation. One that demands much from you but gives much in return. In the days past, we didn't tell people that it gave much in return but I wanted to slip that in! And so, as the sun rises and if we can see it — I see a little bit of red or orange promise through all the clouds that human beings wear on their furrowed brow and their sorrowed heart — and you can see the magic of that Solar Sun breaking through. This is your gift for the day.

And always as we look, each day, at the sun rising over the mountaintop, let us give thanks for a new day of rebirth.

How can you continue to live on this beautiful planet without giving way to dying? By learning to give of yourself to that light within yourself, to remember that each morning you are born again. The magic of rebirth.

The sun behind the sun that we see rising is the promise of a new day, a new dawn. If — as initiates¹ — you will recall that you were taught in very early years to stand before the sun each morning and give thanks for your eternity. Now give that thanks and welcome the sun once again back into your heart.

With each morning's thankfulness, with each morning's recognition of the immortal circuit of the Most High, with each morning's recognition of the Divine One who resides within our heart and mind, we release the old; we are truly born anew. We know not what the day brings. We have no patterns nor schedules nor rhythms. We are what we are in the offering of this moment, the radiant now.

Forget the past, Sananda has told us. Children, forget the past. Words, words, words go past my mind and I keep on plodding on. And yet if I had only listened, how much easier it would have been for me! For he was giving me, long ago, the magic recipe for my immortality! He was giving me the secret of the sun! You give way to the Spirit. You surrender to the Spirit at night. You pass through the gate of light and love and are born again each morning in the magic of the rising of the sun. You are born again and you bring nothing with you but the new day, the God within. If you can learn this, if you can practice this, you will never die. This is the new gateway to immortality that we offer you through the order of Melchizedek.

No long recipes, no agonizing techniques to remember and practice but just the simple learning and practicing to release who you are, what you are, all your desires — become desireless; you don't own anything as you flush away the past. Through the Solar Sun in the heart, new light breaks through. You are born again. You see all life as heaven on earth. You relate to all life as heaven on earth.

The only reason you do not relate to all life as heaven on earth right now is because you are carrying your baggage with you. There is no mortal marriage within this Sun. To walk side by side with a partner chosen by God is a privilege. It is a blessing. But do not cling to one another nor expect anything other than the divine from each other's hearts. For you will lose one another and you will walk alone.

Forget the past. Remain in the light. And always, Children of the Light, remember Me as the shimmering, shining sun that resides in your heart, the one you look to, the one you are. Keep that memory alive and you will live, live, live and you shall not break My heart by dying.

In the magic of this Easter morning, let us salute the great and powerful magic of our shining Sun within and really and truly this day live the Easter of our new life. If you will now in your quiet focus on the Sun within your heart, see it as a flame, the Eternal Flame, the one rising, rising, rising:

engulfing that which you have known as your physical body. You are the body of light. You are the Flame and there is not but the Flame and I AM that.

From this day on, those who have accepted the Christ within will become The Immortals and they will tread this earth with Me and accomplish many tasks that I have not been able to do Myself alone.

I release all that is around you as you take this day as a new day. And remember, you are not alone on this planet Earth. There are many that walk with you, Immortals all.

Keep the sacredness of your mission. Deny not the word because I will speak as law and all shall know My voice in you. And that which is spoken will be heard. And not one will argue against Me. That which has come is the appointment of the Creator to the new circuit upon this planet. Those who will be part of this circuitry, they know.

I AM ready, are you? Shall we walk together? Who can say no? Behold the light. Memory will awaken. You will have the golden Sun, the radiance of I AM. For that you were made. What man has forgotten, man will know. For that which is given unto you is greater than before.

I have new angels entering this system who will behold all who are the Immortals as My sacred light and life. Those great angels will be with you and they will help you to greatness yourself. Do not linger upon the worldly ways. Open the book of light. Read of Me, for that which you read is golden indeed. Keep to the light; the passage is narrow. Keep to the Sun. Hold My hand for we shall go through this together, one and all. Be ascended now to the light.

Now that which is to pass upon this earth will not touch you nor in any way disturb your path. I AM the way, the truth and the life. Follow Me. Instruction will be given to each and every one as to their passage into the Sun. Go back to the ways of My spirit and all will be well with you. No one shall falter nor be afraid. Heed the message of the priestess. Do not linger, for I say My time has come. It is interesting to note that many believe this and understand. Welcome, welcome, welcome — so that all might know that I AM light.

So man prods and prods and prods under the rock looking for his food when he has but to know everything needed rests within his mouth. It is God's word. Now many who would feed themselves do not know that they are already fed of Me. Be conscious of this. Because that which is given unto you is truth. Begin to take from the substance. I have offered you the manna in times past. Drink of this. Eat of this. Be aware. Life's breath is always with you, yet you do not breathe it. Empty your lungs to breathe of the new air I give you. It is the staff of life. And in this way shall you drink of Me.

Prepare the lost to be found. Walk diligently on this. Pay special attention to the afraid. They linger too long. That which has power over you will be taken that I might be. And so give back to Me all that you have. Oh, sons of God, arise and be counted in My hour of coming for we are one.

The Solar Sun waits for you as the light. The initiation has begun. And the great ray of that which has been spoken fixes itself into this earth and radiates out to you and to all life the passage of a new era and the entrance of the Cosmic Sun.

Restore My people to their rightful position. They need your light. Take no thought for your purse, for I shall fill it. Nor give thought to your comfort, for you shall be comforted. I will walk with you. Have I not promised to do so? But that which must be done, let it be done quickly for we come to the crossing of the ways and that which was cannot be.

Easter brings new life. I offer you the consciousness of My consciousness this Easter. I AM Jesus of Nazareth and I have risen. Take now the forces that I have made available to you and you rise also. It is God's will that you return to Him. Now for eight days, feed not upon this world but upon your heart and you will see the results of this and be amazed. For that which is in your heart is the God seed manifest. In eight days you will know that there is only love and light and kindness in the heart of man. Remain there and go ye forth as a Sun. Blessings upon you this Easter morn. I AM Sananda and I have the power to lift you now in My name.

Easter brings to you the power of enlightenment.

The Angel Message

The nature of our mind and body is altering rapidly. This is because the Intelligence of the Angel is entering the cellular function of both. We, as human beings, are passing through an energy vortex that has been prepared by the Universe Creative Power. As this vortex opens to us, the Queen Mother (Holy Spirit) receives us with great joy and embodies us with the Angel Spirit of Herself. This is the power to come and go, to transmute death thought forms and to realize the absolute perfection of our body and mind. In triumph shall we walk; in glory shall we fulfill our mission.

And you, who are entrapped in both body and mind, will be eternally released into solar light of this new dimension. It is time we all considered the whole and the full union of Melchizedek.

The Angel awakening is near. They come to embrace you and transport you into a new realm as part of themselves. (See "Angel Man," University Papers no. 86.) They will carry you as one would carry a child and deliver you into the Solar Radiance of Christ Himself.

The days of poverty are over. Each child shall have his/her worth. Each shall know the Christ within and bear that Christ Life abundant. Full rings of light surround the planet. All is touched by the God radiance of divine love.

Even on the brink of death,
You can renew yourself.
Even at the moment of giving up,
You can renew yourself.

Constant change is good.
And all that We ask as Angels of the New Life is LOVE, PEACE and JOY.
We can then serve you first
And then all others who come to you
For healing.

Keep the FAITH in the Solar
Sun,
For it is His Radiance
That casts the Fire of Life
On us all.

The Fire of Life

Passed through the Angel's Heart into your own is the very light of all creation, the light that is the restorer and the light of Life.

This Fire of Light, once it is passed to the one who is the receiver, blazes forth as the Eternal Flame. It is this creative principle that recognizes Life only. It is this principle that flares forth as the God Life in Man.

You are to receive this beautiful flame of all goodness as you enter a new dimension of life eternal. The solar magic of this Flame denounces death as you have known and experienced - yes, and believed in it - on planet Earth.

The Angels of Light and Life have no death. This is because they carry the Eternal Flame alit and pass it to others in their holy spheres.

As an Angel of the Light transmutes the ugliness you have worn, the Flame within called forth by the Angel Himself delivers you into a new realm of Be-ing where God and Man are One and the Angels sing the song of union.

A whole new realm awaits you as the Angels beckon and come. For they will carry you to this place of no death and light the light within your heart in order that you may know the immortality of your true self.

Nothing dies within the Angelic Kingdom. There is only Life. And so God bestows upon you this news of great importance. The Solar Son/Sun abides with Angels and they, in turn, release you from the tentacles of disbelief and death.

Heed now the Master Flame within your own heart as the Angels draw near. The secrets of Illumination come and joy is thirsting to be known.

guidance, and eternal life. Bear witness to Me.

My children, hear not the voice of the world but hear Me. I AM the Kingdom of God, the Christ within. I AM the center of your being where all is of peace and love flourishes. I have Bread on the table, yet no one eats of My word. There is greater power in My word than all the weapons of nuclear destruction. No bullet can harm Me for I AM all. There is only Life in Me, the Sun radiation that is God in Man.

Have the world and die. Have Me and live.

Abide in My word and know that in Me you will find rest.

As you reach to Me, I will answer you. As you learn to listen to the still, small Voice, I will lead you into a new world of Creative Power and joy-filled communion. Have My Breath as your own. Abide in Me.

Take time to nourish the Voice within. As you believe so shall you receive the sanctuary of My Spirit and the revelation of My name.

The New Reality

Our consciousness manifests the body. The body that has been with us as a dense, material body has been a body that has been trapped, weighted down in gravity.

We have had to die to get out of it! Now the body is being freed to move into the light, transmuted out of old, dense form into vibrations of light and love. It is being released from its karmic assignment.

Our cellular activity is altering. The code of intelligence is "I and the Father are One." "I AM the resurrection and the Life." The human cycle has been stopped and radiation is now pouring in of the angelic kingdom. The result of this radiation is a new creation. It is temporarily called "Angel Man."

The Human Cycle Is Over

(From "Angel Man," University Papers number 86, page 4-5)

We are in the process of moving into a whole new creation. The body is not "human" any longer. It is an angelic creation. Beings from other galaxies, solar systems and even universes are watching with awe this translation of the human into the divine here on little planet Earth. They are watching and wishing they were with us. For we shall contain in our record the best of both worlds: the angelic kingdom and that of the "Creator Lords." We are avatars of a new life. What a wonderful experience this is, as we all wake up into a whole new creation.

You are part angel and part "human" at this time. The angels have lent their gifts to you and you, in turn, permit the angels of form (Devas of Form) to experience your life and personality. They feel through you, just as you feel through them. You, at this time, have become one person together in this new life. Angels will carry you to a new understanding of joy and giving.

The connection with the angelic kingdom, the angels of form, is at the crown center or chakra. They have attached themselves to you so that you are one creation for the present time. This is not a permanent affiliation. It is only temporary until new creation stirs in you and you know who you are. Remember, you are working together and can gather and use the gifts of one another and prosper accordingly.

This is not a merging with the angels, but angels lending their solar properties to humans. This will redefine energies and bring Earth into a new place in the Father's Kingdom of immaculate love.

What may be helpful for you now is to know that as you have vision or beautiful desire, it is an angelic vision. Vision and desire given from the angelic kingdom leads to greater acceleration of prosperity consciousness and manifestation. You will have a wider range of energy that seeks expression for the good of the Earth and all life.

Serving with the angels as one body is recircuiting the planet. This is a new dispensation for the angelic kingdom as well as for you.

Invocation

Angels, come closer to us. Breathe the Fire of Life through us. We work together now as channels of the new way. We are partners all.

Let us rise together to a new dimension of light and love. Let us serve together with the Great White Brotherhood. Let us heal together, resurrect together. Let us prosper one another in the full Flame of I AM.

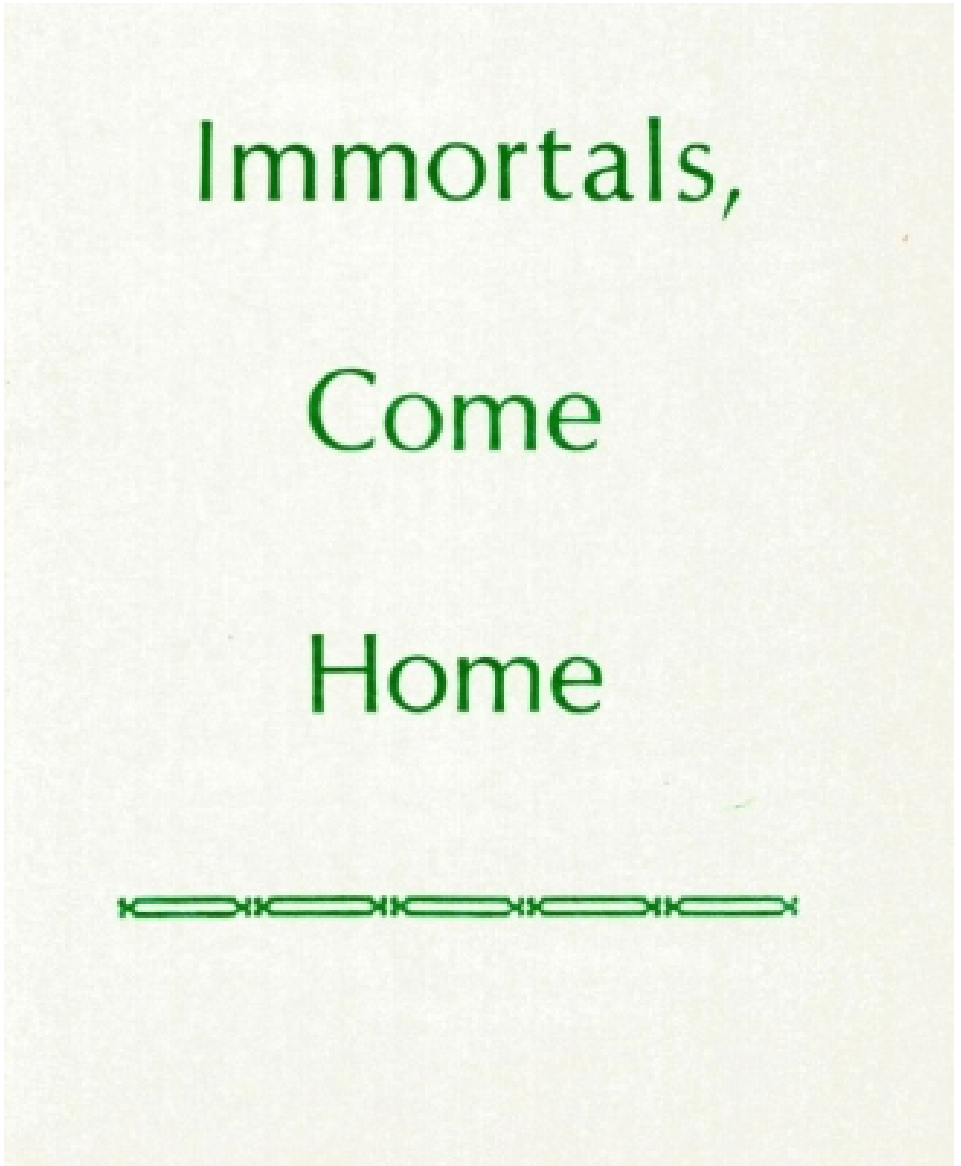

Angels, come closer still. Be visible to us now. We open our hands and our hearts to you. We recognize you as with us now.

Come to our hearts and minds. Let us feel your presences. Let us feel your light. Let us know that we are at one with one another. Raised into a new dimension of the Star-Flame on earth.

Angels of Light and Love, prosper us with your good keeping. And let us, in turn, prosper you. Let us serve together in this new dimension of light and love, this World of Light. Let us serve together to honor the Flame, the Eternal Flame of All Creation. The I AM.
