“Liberate the Christ Body”

These words were given to me following meditation this evening. Why? What does this command mean?

It means this: We are now being lifted and transmuted into a whole new dimensional frequency, which is the Christ Plane, or CHRIST BODY. This BODY surrounds the planet and has been waiting to enfold you as Christ Consciousness.

The Body of Christ is the Solar Son. It enfolds you now in the magnificent rhythm of the Christ, and it is glorifying the Christ (Flame) within your heart as I write.

The Christ Body is a dimensional change or shift. This shift is mandated by the Solar Council. It comes as divine intervention to prevent further devastation on a planet that is destined to rise into higher form.

Lift your thought into Higher Mind. Relax and let Me (the Christ, God in you) flush out the weakness and plurality of your former life. Stretch to the new dimension of Creative Power and sit with the gods.

The meaning of this declaration, Liberate the Christ Body, is a direct command from our Hierarchy to free into our experience the presence of the Almighty Christ as CONSCIOUSNESS. The shift has begun!

Blessings of the Light,
Crystal

Journey Into Light

The value of silence

All things are made from the Great Silence. This is the Creator potential. And this Great Silence is the Great Beholder. It is the Creator and it is the created. It is undivided.

Every living thing is created from the Silence. This is the Breath of Life, the Presence that divides not. Go there first, not to the appearance. For the appearance will deceive you and divide you. First come home.

The Creator knows Him-Herself from the Silence and therefore will create from that Divine Being of unity and love. It is that Silence that is the mass for all creation.

The Power dwells within the Silence - the power to create from silence.

The Power to Be

First comes the silence and then the spoken word. The roots of the spoken word are always from the silence which is the Holy Mother, the God substance and field of potentiality. Thus great thought and inspiration must be given before a word is uttered, because you speak what is going to be. Here lies the responsibility to the spoken word.

As an initiate you are responsible for the words you speak. They must be filled with the Presence of God and must glorify God. When you know this, you will think carefully before you speak. The sounds of your voice in the words that you speak planted in the Silence of Divine Substance (I AM) manifest. Have you done something for all the people of this planet by your words? What effect are your words having on the planet and all her creation? Are you contributing to the harmony and the beauty of life intended?

It takes time to quiet the mind. But until we understand and can actually feel the nature of silence, we really cannot touch that field of potentiality, that dynamic field of complete and utter being that allows us to think, feel and speak and let it manifest. So remember the silence, and quiet yourselves.

Let go and let God

A path into the regions of the Silence is by way of meditation.

Then of course the second was meditation and the value of meditation as a way into this great field of potential that is for all of us, this spiritual substance of life. This is a very crucial discipline. By meditation you learn to quiet the mind, to develop the powers of concentration and to listen to the voice of the Silence as it forms a new dimension of supreme intelligence and divine thought.

Be Loving

As long as the mind is busy analyzing and criticizing and judging

fellow human beings, there can be no admittance into the Silence where all things are made. The Creator only knows love. You must enter love to be creative in the I AM Presence. When you criticize you limit yourself. You have set yourself apart from the wondrous field of Intelligence Being that is the Great Silence, Father-Mother of all life. To judge is not to be part of God's world.

Communicate with nature

The very act of communication will lift your spirits. You can never be alone when you communicate and make a friend of all nature. Nature will set up a correspondence with you and you will know the planet as a field of potentiality herself. You will understand her Mother Nature.

As you walk through parks and woods, on beaches and mountain trails, remembering that all comes from the Great Silence, Mother of us all, then you may begin to sense the absolute rhythm of perfection that is the language of The One. A gate will open into a new dimension of absolute power that is love. This unified field of God potential becomes your state of mind.

The Value of humility

When you realize the oneness of all life, the network of all life, you cannot help but develop one of the most priceless gifts of all: humility. When the spoken word is dressed and formed in humility, all life listens. Even the tiniest of the tiniest is unafraid. There is no war.

In speaking in the rhythm of all life, you are in the Creator, you are part of the Creator's body. Thus the power of the Creator is your power. The Creative Power can objectify only when you are one with Her Spirit and you find this oneness in the Great Silence.

When there's concern for "self", there is no love in vibration. The creative circuit itself, vital force of the Creator body of which you are a part, is not active because you have broken or forgotten the chords that unite you with all life. You have forgotten the Law of One. You have divided and separated yourself from the joyous and harmonious life that is Be-ing.

Align with the Center

If you can see that every word that is given to be spoken actually is like a mold, like a cookie mold, that is planted in the rich sea of Spirit, Divine Substance. Can you visualize this? This substance of all life that is life itself in its primary form is intelligent energy of Be-ing that will take what you say and make it happen for you. From nothing comes the all thing.

Now your relationship to the Inner Voice, your relationship to the Thought Adjuster, Father fragment, your relationship to Spirit, the Creator must be part of this. If it is a sincere relationship, you will speak with one voice (unity with all life) and all life will hear you. Your relationship with God (Being) builds the bridge to the Spoken Word.

If you are frightened, you must come to grips with your fear. Fear indicates that you are running away from something. See what you are hiding from. Face your fear in honesty and courage. Live not in fear but in the Presence.

No power is given to those who fear. The power only comes to those who have mastered their fear. When you put God first, there is no fear. When you put humanhood first, you fear for your life. And that is the way down, not up! Remember, fear is the consciousness of separation. Where is your separation in Me?

Speak for all life

Everything is holy in the divine kingdom. Consider the universe. The vain man must give way to the mighty spirit of today, yesterday and tomorrow. Consider all life and the effect your words, planted in the divine substance of the Holy Mother as energy, will have on the planet and the universe? This is your karma. You frighten the birds, the little wildlife, even the angelic field by your angry tones, loud shouting, inconsiderate feelings. The fear that you may be feeling at times may be only the reflection of the fear that you have caused by your inconsiderate feelings and spoken words. Consider all things before you speak. Plant the words in the divine substance and watch them grow beautifully for all life to enjoy. Prosper all life in your words and feelings.

Speak in the rhythm of all life and listen to the words that come from the Great Silence. Heed these words as they are the government of the great land itself. The words will come with great power and in complete harmony with life as a whole. They will enrich you and the universe.

Consider all life before you speak. The inner voice, the substance of life, becomes fused as your life. It is the higher mind circuit of your being called the Universal Mind, circuit of the One. You become that by obedience, by listening and obeying that Christ voice, that intuitive intelligence within you. There is no other way. That guidance that you attuned to is your true self, your higher, mind circuit. Your true self is always stabilized, never apart from God. This is what the inner voice is all about. It's about divine intelligence in

The Earth Is My Body

And as My body it is expressing My perfection, My perfect union with all life.

I AM all there is in truth. My world is divine, all-perfect. I AM in the world as I AM. Every rock and stone, every particle of dust or sand is of Me. There is no other. As you come to the place of reality or the Kingdom of God, there I AM much like a brilliant Sun vibrating My essence as who I AM.

Exercise your awareness by seeing Me, feeling Me in all life. See My world as I do, without shame.

Turn the key. Open the door of freedom and Christ awareness. The Christ is the Sun as beholder and believer. Stand in the Sun, the very center and the core where I AM. We will blaze forth together the Master Ray of Intelligence that sends forth of itself all I AM.

Glad I AM that you have come to Me. Within Me, you are complete. Without Me, you are nothing. This is My Word. Now shine forth My Glory

Come Home

I invite you into the Kingdom of Truth, the Kingdom of God. I release you from all ties to mortality. Come Home. In Me you have everything. You have perfection. I AM perfection. Seek Me out of yourself. I send My thoughts to you that you might walk with Me.

I AM the living perfection of Myself. I AM not constricted nor AM I held in bondage by human thought. I AM released thought from My God consciousness. Each thought released in Me manifests as perfection. I AM the seed of Myself, a growing tree of My Be-ing. Lovingly I extend Myself to you as you. My child, why not enter My world of perfection?

White Magic

Based in the Kingdom of God you are living in a state of perfection, for God/Truth is expressing all of the time. There is no other. The Sun is shining, casting its rays of intelligence upon all life, agreeing with all life as its own perfection.

There is no neglect or forgetfulness here! This radiance of the Sun or KINGDOM OF GOD is forever shining as perfection. It is a state of Being.

Are you one of those people who is always trying to perfect something, someone, even yourself? In the Kingdom, God is the perfection and there is no other. You don't have to perfect anything or anyone, including yourself, because you are living with perfection, experiencing perfection within yourself and all around you. You are in the Kingdom of God where the life is already perfect and the path is that of enjoying and partaking and participating in the perfection I AM!

Come to that place within yourself. I know you can. You are already there!

Right?

Each one is loved in the creative power of My own Being.

The City Of God

The moment you are in is perfect. Be there with Me.¹ I The minute you agree with this, you are living with perfection as perfection. The power is in your agreement and acknowledgment of the divine flow of God in you as you. Without God you are nothing. That is the divine truth of Being. Where I AM you are. Be still and know that I AM God within you and as you do this, you are That.

You establish a rhythm by your belief. This rhythm releases a road, a pathway, by which I travel as My Be-ing expressing I AM. Set up the rhythm now. Be clothed with Spirit. Be lighted!

These are words of Power. What has been given is an electrical circuit to the God Center where you and I are One as God Be-ing. I love you. Now take up that love and come Home to the place I have provided out of Myself. I love you. Come to that place of love, joy and Be-ing. Live that I might live. So let it Be that I have spoken to you as My child of light. Go back to the beginning where all things were made by a state of grace and love. Joy in Me. I have the Spirit to contain you and be you.

The Kingdom Of God

What you think is already yours in the Kingdom of God.

How blessed are they who return Home to feel the warmth of the Giving Sun upon their shoulders, hearts, minds and souls. You will not stumble in Me. You have been given sure steps in My walk. You have been given the way. It is the Melchizedek order.

And defined through Jesus - through many eons - it is My light upon the path. Reclaim that light and enter through the gates of welcome into My Kingdom of divine perfection. I AM you!

Aren't you tired of living separately, without Me? Why, man, do you want to suffer when I can give you peace of mind?

The Kingdom of God is the Kingdom of Truth revealing itself as the nature of God the Creator of all life. It is through this creation as the Kingdom that you can experience perfection as the whole expression of a world of light.

This is the message that I have for you today: that you can receive My perfect expression through which I live and have My Being, through which you live in Me as a citizen in the Kingdom of My Sun. When My light shines, there is no

¹Me = the higher state of consciousness I call the "I AM."

Living with Perfection

other. Behold I AM the light! And in this beholding you are one with the light. For in the light, I AM.

Stand at the core of Being. Look around you. What do you see? Why all is in perfect order, is it not? DIVINE ORDER. There is only harmony, perfection agreeing with itself. No disorder can exist in Me ... not in the Kingdom where I AM.

The Kingdom of Truth is the magical mountain to which you ascend as I AM. It is in the magical moment of your realization that you are the Sun projecting yourself into creation, as you vibrate as consciousness of the Sun (God in expression as you or one with you). You are the perfect unit of Being reflecting YOU as perfect creation I AM! How magical this mountain is! What glory awaits each moment! And what joyful experience!

How wonderful to be with God every moment, to feel God's breath as your breath! How blessed!

Let your gratitude well up through your thankful heart as creative power! The Mother Spirit awaits your gratitude and your thankful heart that She may project Her radiance as perfect creation, divine perfection in expression now.

In the Kingdom of God there are no awards. Why not? Because there is only One. I AM That. The mountain has been reached. The Kingdom is the magic of the living Sun. It is living in perfection without doing, deserving or earning. The Kingdom is Unconditional Love acting upon itself. It is a giving, unquestioning and unjudging place to Be.

Can you live with Me, with perfection, in this place of love and light? Then as the master Jesus once said, "Take up your bed and walk".

you, and the surrender into (the giving way to) the Heavenly Man.

A new realm

We are recreating ourselves in a new realm. There is only one law then, the Law of One. The crucifixion is over. We cannot look back. We must look forward into the light of a new resurrection and a solar planet. With the initiation of this planet, humanity enters the solar plane of God awareness. This is the World of Light, the Solar Son/ Sun. Man vibrates at one with the solar system. A Sun him/ herself.
