The Blessings Of Kuthumi

I AM you and you are I.

Leave the world as you have seen it and known it, and walk in the Christ light now which is the allness of My being.

Let the presence decree your word. Talk less, far less, for there are lessons to be learned in the silence. Speak only as the Spirit speaks through you.

Embodied by the Breath, be imprisoned not. See God in everything, and never speak unkindly, not to anyone nor anything causing hurt upon My lands of peace. Let your speaking voice be as a wave of peace, a wave of God Consciousness vocalized, a contribution to Mother Earth.

Leave the self as you have known it and rise to awareness of Melchizedek, oneness with all life. Let My Spirit go free.

Peace be with you, My sons and daughters. I AM Kuthumi speaking, World Teacher. Pass not away from this but be ever present in it as the truth. I am so glad to be with you and to be able to speak at this moment of the things I love best.

Personality is dropping away. Let it fall like a mortal garment.

Be gentle with others. Practice your gentleness. And when you go forth in the many directions that you will travel, travel in gentleness and in compassion and in much joy.

Receive the blessing of Kuthumi, World Teacher, now.

The Mandate Of Kindness

Consider all life. Consider all living beings on this planet as you speak, as you think, as you walk and play.

Your investment in the future is now. It is not tomorrow. It is this moment. As you speak with the love of the planetary guardians and consider all life as one with God, your future - be it a minute from now or tomorrow - is perfect.

You cannot afford to think an unkind thought, issue anger or voice belittlement and judgment, for this can only harm you. You will insure for yourself a disagreeable future of the like that you have given to another.

The discipline of love must be, as a student of the light, your first priority. Even beyond your own defense.

The GodSelf is a loving Be-ing. It is the Sun radiating, the house of God. To know this is to be unconditional love within yourself, to realize the damage done to the earth and all her inhabitants when you put "me" first.

It is my advice to you to pause before you speak and to listen to your own voice when you speak. Have you thought of the other? THE LAW OF THE PLANET SAYS YOU MUST. Therefore, take great thought into your speaking voice. Do not speak unless it is of the Christ Light.

You may ask: What is the Christ Light in my voice? And I say to you: It is the allocated Energy field of the Universe Creator for you now as gentleness to all your surroundings, kindness in thought and deed, respect for God's circle of life and consideration for the generations to come.

Once you set your foot upon the ground of this loving planet you are responsible to her laws, and these laws of caring say to each and every one of us: COMPASSION, EARTH SERVICE, LOVING UNION WITH ALL LIFE MUST BE PRACTICED.

Many know this, many do not. Treat the environment as your friend, not as your servant, not as your enemy. AS YOUR FRIEND. And if you do this, you will be inducted into a new world of love and light wherein the angels tread.

Set not yourself aside as superior and better than another. You are not the teacher. No one is. I AM.

In the embodiment of the solar dimension as My Earth now, all life, I say all life, is equal in My eyes as I see Myself in all life as who I AM.

Blessings Be.

A Letter To My Initiates from Kuthumi

To The Original Keepers:

Greetings,

Acknowledging the Christ within your heart, which is the God Seed placed in you as your Self, is your protective field of Intelligence. Wherever you are there is no danger when you acknowledge the Christ vibration within your heart and soul. This positive focus eliminates all negativity without hesitation. It is immediate and all-inclusive. Remember this please as you go into new rhythms of light measurement and serve our Plan.

You have been called to a high assignment now, that of serving The Christ as a unit. This radiant energy calling will build a new world of light. To those who have consented, I say with my brothers and sisters of the Great White Brotherhood, "Thank you." We recognize your sacrifice for the good of the whole and we are forever grateful to you as you join us in building a new world of illumination and Christ love.

Begin your ascent now. As you do this, I, Kuthumi, will be with you. I will escort you through the walls of maya into a universe of gentle people. We all welcome you with open arms into the Christ vibration of service. Delighted we are with all of you who have signed Sananda's Pledge. And we turn now to the resurrection of all life, creatures great and small! Let us now be about the Father's business. And rejoice that your time has come.

Blessed are they who return to light.

The Words of Mary

The World Mother is an Office held by Mother Mary within the Planetary Hierarchy. She is in Meditation now, focusing on the God Seed within each human heart. Soon it is anticipated that she will declare the All-Son born as Consciousness risen. This will mean a new humanity, evolved from the power circuits of the Supreme, has been born; and with this birth of “new man,” the old world crumbles to dust and is no more.

I will increase your understanding within you that your hearts may be opened further to the love of God, which rests in all souls—that you might stir, by your love, the flame of Christ. That you might stir the light of this same Christ within all men's hearts that man might seek God further, deeper into himself, and find there the secret of the ages: “I AM”¹

It is a promised land, a place of light and love that each has within himself. Look no further than your own heart. Seek no further than the Christ within. Carry this Light forth among men and speak the truth to them, as it is given from the Son. Lo, that which shines upon you is the Sun within, and the light, ever present, knows no death. I am Mary. I am the blessed Mother. I am the World Mother, and I light your soul now with a deeper understanding of the solar lesson that you have for all humanity.

Be soft and gentle and walk with padded feet. Be clothed in light always so that all men can see your light radiant. Each one of you hearing this message will make your ascension soon. Though Easter may not be the day, it is the measurement of this energy that we call Easter that will come to you with the good tidings of your ascension.

There is naught that you can do but love in the rising of your Christ light. And there are gifts that you have not explored yet that dwell within your soul temple. Please now rest in the qualified sound of Mary, for I bring this sound that all might understand the true birth of light that is this new age. In each heart, there will come an uprising of Spirit. For the Master will show himself as face to face to the one who is delivered up unto him.

Teach the little ones of me that I am the Mother of a new race of humanity. Let them know my love, raise them in my embrace that I might be a solace unto them, and love them as my sons. Though storms may come, there is no storm in the heart of that one who loves. There is no storm in the heart of that one who is compassionate with all life. And no storm that can harm anyone who puts God before all else.

¹ The “I AM presence” replaces the ego self as you rise in consciousness and become the vibration of the Son.

A blessing goes forth to planet Earth and to all those who are listening to the Christ light. This blessing will touch many and indeed start the resurrection of the heart to God. There is no turning back now for I have begun my reign, as the Lord has bidden me to do so, and I will take my responsibilities seriously as the Mother of the human race.

I have brought upon you a new light. And each one will be blessed by my hand and by the works of my hand. And in this way, they will bless many. As Jesus would have me say, “Love thy neighbor as thyself. Love God above all else. And deliver up my people unto me that I might pass them to the Father.” So shall I say these same words unto you that you might know the truth of them.

Bless now the Christ that dwells within you. You and the Christ light are one. You are nature of God. And you are body, mind and spirit of the Christ light. Each moment is divine as I resurrect you into the Christ child of the holy name.

Live in the moment, as you are wayshowers of the new way, a brand new way of being. I am continually with you and I will not leave your side, nor do I intend to walk away. You are ever with me as the child of my heart. I am Mary, your blessed Mother, come amongst you. You will sow mighty seeds on earth.

Dwell now in peace and with me, and walk not in the future but in the moment. For each moment is rich and wondrous and pure. This is my way and it is the way of your Son the Christ. I announce this Way that you might walk with me, forgetting the past, remembering only the beautiful light I AM. As a fountain, a breeze of holy breath, passes amongst you now, know that you are risen and that I, the holy Mother, have been with you a very long time—that I rejoice that you are now with me in a body divine as a glowing sun. Let now the light of the Divine Mother, as the creation stirs, touch this planet Earth and bring into awareness the God within. And let each heart be opened further to the blessing of the Son of God, the radiance Supreme. Let the heavens awaken also to My Voice as the angels prepare to receive more.

From the College of New Learning, Lesson Ten, “The Mother Spirit”

The Order of Life

The Christ order of all life is respect for one another, cooperation with one another, and obedience to the Mother Spirit who indwells all and carries the government of nations. The order is compassion for all life, harmlessness of heart, mind and actions. The order is gentleness of spirit, expressed gratitude to all life, active awareness and participation within the circle of life.

All life forms have a purpose in the divine order. Each is to be respected for his or her significant contribution to harmony. All suffering is forbidden. No one is to cause suffering to another. This includes the animal kingdom, which has suffered unduly. There is to be no suffering left. It is intolerable that innocent life, giving life, be tormented by thoughtless action. God draws all up into the circle of love and energy fulfillment. No one shall hurt another by order of the One.

If you wish no suffering upon yourself, you must give up afflicting suffering upon another. There is a part of God, a feeling part, that actually experiences all suffering inflicted upon Its Body. In the etheric existence of God-Spirit, the Body of God feels the pain and radiates the pain of all its life expression. And this pain is reacted upon by the creative power causing wars, death and incredible darkness upon the earth.

World Mother Scripts

World Mother Script 132

Let us now receive the blessing of the Light! Resist not this Light for it is all-powerful, and it can be fierce at times when needed. Its fierceness comes from its gentleness. The angels work in many ways to break the stranglehold that is around you and this earth. Speak to the powerful winds of change and quiet them when they become too strong for your body and your mind. The angels will hear you and quiet the raging winds of change.

Without these winds, the time would stretch too far into the future. We must act now to avert disasters and further suffering.

Therefore, I loose my angels to do their work as I have directed. And gladness fills my spirit, as I watch and wait for the nature of human beings to reflect the Christ within.

Blessed are you who have followed my word and believe in my Son's words. There is a golden light appearing in the North. He comes.

The New Mind

*When Mind and Heart are one,
you have perfect agreement on earth.
The fusion of the Heart and Mind is the Garden of Eden where all power grows and glows.*

The New Mind

A pure instruction is needed. The Heart Center (chakra) must be open fully to receive the unchallenged direction of the GodSelf. The Creative Power must rise to meet and agree with the vibrating direction; and manifestation must occur. In heaven, so it is on earth.

Now we see a new age government, a real new age government based on the Christ Principle that is oneness with God. The wheel begins to turn a-rightly. Time is speeded up into a new day. The cosmos rejoices.

But what happens if we have one foot in and one foot out? Jesus warned us about compromising in truth, didn't he? You cannot be neutral in these times as the break-off is happening right now: the separation of the old and the new, "the wheat and the chaff."

If you will stand with Me, then you are mortal no longer. We share a Consciousness, you and I. My habitat is with the Spirit. Therefore, with Me you are with the Father. I AM one.

Fix your attention on the GodSelf, the true Be-ing you are. Relax into It. Let this God consciousness take over your mortal shell, cover you like a blanket of Energy, immortalize your every thought, your every desire. This is the release of your "old self" into the new. Give up that which is mortal and return to your natural state of Be-ing or the divine expression of God as consciousness.

Now shall you see in wholeness. The rhythm of Creative Power as oneness, blessing all in its resurrection, has been initiated. It cannot be stopped, for it is a vibratory commitment to the Father. Yet, what happens to those who are not ready to join the oneness, the eventualizing deity of God the Supreme? What about those who are rebellious, who refuse to become a part of the new incoming vibration? If there is love in the heart and a gentleness of soul, the vibration will gather them into the light body and receive them. Those who cannot agree with the incoming vibration of new life will find themselves in another place of their own choice.

The old world - that which we knew as our material world - is falling away. It is decaying rapidly. All laws maintaining that third-dimensional material world and frequency are no longer valid. You are subject only to My Word. The powerful mandate of My Word creates and supports the new world frequency: the body of light. Thus, you move from rhythms of the old world to rhythms of the new. You begin to "see" the Presence in all life in a vibrant, electric way. You will know, you will see, you will hear the presence of God as vibrating Truth in all life.

How important is it to accept the vibrational fluids I offer you now as the body of My Son on earth? This is the coming of the Lord, the manifest promise. I offer you a new identity of life in Me. I establish My Consciousness through you in loving welcome. As you receive My embrace, there is a oneness felt and all life energy obeys you as I AM. I lift the veil of illusion that you might see the Truth.

Release the concepts that have formed your world. Expect enlightenment. What I give you is of Me. When one door closes, another opens.

I form Myself through you. It is your activity of acceptance that allows a new life to objectify for you, your family and your friends. I objectify through you as you. I AM seeking to vibrate through your consciousness to establish Myself in creation.

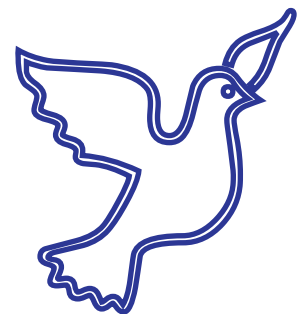

I know who I AM through you.

It Is I

The Heart Center is the guardian of all energy. As the lifting process begins and the cleansing of emotions takes place, life begins anew in the Heart Center. For it is I who is born of the Heart, the Christ child of the universe, the image and likeness of God. In Me your identity is stored and remembered.

As the emotions and base desires are transformed into light energy, the God Presence emerges as I AM. When the Heart is open, the Mind can read the records of Melchizedek. For you who read these lessons, let the vibrations of this Order prepare you for your illumination and Christ understanding.

From the College of New Learning, Lesson Five, "Heart-Mind"

Catastrophic Events?

Discard all prophecies that program catastrophe.

The planet does not want to rip and tear herself apart.

As you become conscious of the angels and the nature spirits as partners, you soon learn that all predictions of major earthquakes, fierce storms and fire can be translated into the gentle and loving expression of divine love.

In the spiritual world, storms are gentle, earthquakes are mere tremors and the winds make music praising God.

You are consciousness. As you transcend error, the appearance of separateness and evil, and find your home with God once again, illumination occurs that all is one. In this place of union, all the forces of light and love express with gentleness and respect for all life. Remember Jesus when he spoke to the storm? "Peace, be still," the Master said. And the storm was quieted. Such is your path as you reunite with the angelic kingdom in God Consciousness. You, as God consciousness, quiet the storms and the earthquakes. You, as the consciousness of God, carry within you the full World of Light. Your assignment is to reveal this World in joy and love. This is your Christ mission and your assignment on planet Earth.

So, let us be about the Father's business. Let go the glamour of predictions and prophecies. Put no energy there! Go to the real world, the World of Light. Plant your feet squarely in the Kingdom of God. And the Earth will rejoice.

From the Solar News, Volume 1, Number 5

We have to be humble. So the God presence is constantly humbling us so that that God presence can decree. And when we're in that place of that humbling and in that place of that unity, we truly know God in our heart as closer than breathing and even, maybe, as ourself. The only way we can know God as ourself-and we can never understand it through the conceptual mind-is to actually go empty so that the high Self and the presence of God can fill us.

The words came to me this morning about power, that power is in the heart. Power isn't in the solar plexus and it certainly isn't something that comes over someone. It's love. Chief Shenandoah¹ said that gentleness is power. He's right.

The Voice is Sacred

Hear My Voice: this is the Will of the Father unto men. Stand up and be anointed. Let the Voice be heard and released from your throat chakra. Let the glory of your Creator within be restored to this Earth and function through the lightworkers, as the Solar Son's message goes forth. Let the temples be restored on Earth. Let the message of My creation be heard and My name be a foundation for your places of worship and contemplation. Walk in joy so that the angels can accompany you. They will need your help, just as you will need theirs, in the rebuilding of this planet and in her transmutation and restoration into vibrancy.

Let the Solar Son rise in your own heart that you might be a Christ light, O My people, to the many who hunger for it. Receive your own inner, divine Christ light and restore the planet by it. Take oneness as your nature. Receive the glory and the blessing of the Mother of angels. Contemplate Her in your voice that you might bring forth gentleness, compassion, and consideration for all life. Take your Solar Son into yourself. Take this light as your own and remain in a listening position that you might be constantly aware, as you draw on the light for the purpose of your incarnation.

Let now your words be sacred. Let not one word be as a sacrilege to the holy Voice within. I must be heard. Let the light pass through your lips into the holy spheres of this Earth, and let Mother Earth herself receive this light and begin to raise up her temples from out of herself in this day of oneness and reorder.

Keep the watch. Let not one thought turn to the negative. Let not one thought destroy but always build, build, build in the synergy of soul and rise to the greater part I AM. Deliver My peoples now into the higher Christ vibration. Let the Earth be settled in light and life. Let the Creator emerge and receive the Queen of Himself as She spreads her wings.

Be at peace, for the word is peace upon this planet now. I want My government restored. Be now the light of yourself. Walk gently and carefully for this is holy ground. Bestow My blessings on others. Give not one thought for yourself. Give the thought up that I might gather you unto Me to be sons of My own being. Let the night become the day in the name of Michael, Sananda, Jesus. And so it is.
