THE SOLAR FLAME

The University Papers No. 76

The Holy Creator You

There is a power that is within you that can release you from the karma of this planet. There is a place for you to go now that can lift you into a new era of solar sonship/sunship. You are illumined from the darkness as you willingly accept the vibratory records of NEW LIFE. The sacred Sun that dwells within your heart and mind will lift you and carry you forth into a new era of light sound.

The Presence of the Creator lives within your soul and is the capstone. As you reach within yourself to the great summit wherein dwells the Sun of God, the illumination born of the darkness, you will shed your garments of dense material. Go into the light, My children. Go into the light. The time has come for you to know yourself in a new way.

Never forget what I tell you here, for it is to be remembered. I AM the Capstone. I AM the reason you are searching. Touch the place wherein I dwell and you will find peace and release from the outer clothing. I release My children into Me that I might be. The Great I AM is the Capstone. That is to say, the Great "I" is the Capstone. The "son of man" is driven to this place and here he or she waits to receive the full message of the radiation Supreme. I have no better thoughts for you than that you might dwell with Me.

The Solar Cells And The Radiation of God The Supreme

Be human no longer. You have been cast into the fires of My longing that I might have you for My own. This is My declaration: After the Great Seal¹ is broken and the tongue of the Lord is loosed (The Word), then I shall be about the Father's business once again. I would have you prepared to undertake a new vibration: that is of the Son of God and the radiation of The Supreme Godhead to all My creation.

Think about this for a moment. Think about what this might mean to all peoples everywhere, not just to the peoples but to all My creation as It fathers and mothers a new life on this planet.

I would have you caught up in this holy ¹The Great Seal: Delivered, prepared for the new vibration of light and love. These are the ones who will create out of themselves a new world. They are the affluent ones.

²The Word of David: Mastership, the six pointed star, order of Melchizedek

Fire now. And as this radiation is felt, remember My words: I will come again. In these times of violence and goodness, I will separate the wheat from the chaff. I know My own.

Have glory in the Sonship of My new day. Let it be known that in the man himself, and in the woman herself, and in the child so precious to Me, lies My Word: the Word of David.² And God-filled it is.

The radiation of The Supreme removes the death experience. The Vibration of The Supreme dances with new life and radiates out of Itself a new world of powerful continuity and supreme Grace. In God The Supreme all the children are of One Mind. They echo the feelings of the Creator and find peace there in the embodiment of the Creator.

When The Supreme is active, the mind of all that It affects begins to think differently. The first thoughts are of oneness, and they are in compliance with the Solar Vibration of the Universe Plan. These first thoughts do not disturb the Plan, they enhance the Plan.

The individual alignments to the separate rays are not disturbed in this change but the individual characteristics, as the many colors of the rainbow, have their expression as the Creator's vibratory hues. Individual expression can express only as vibrations of Be-ing. Anything out of the circle (contradictory to this law of energy) will not be allowed on this planet.

The actual Solar Cells, frequency of the I AM, are actually emerging as God The Supreme. When these cells vibrate directly into the planetary body, you will see this planet, Earth, move from darkness into light. And this will cause great elation in the heavens. The Solar Cells that I am speaking of here are beginning to be seen in the emanations of light and can be felt by those sensitive to the ultraviolet rays of the Higher Self. Each day it will grow stronger and lighter. Each moment will be felt as these Solar Cells become activated by the Heart of the Mother returning Jesus to Earth as the SON IN YOU.³

The Body of The Christ is The Supreme on earth delivering up Its own. And I tell you this: Everywhere -- there is nowhere I AM not -- have I planted seeds of a new beginning. Everywhere. Everywhere and in all atoms and molecules, I rise and reclaim the body of this Planet Earth unto Me as My sacred vibration levels the grounds and builds the temples of white light.

This is the Coming of The Lord and it will act on your body-garment and the very day you are in. The Body of The Christ is the new dimension of Light and Love, a place of beauty and of joy.

³ Bringing Light to all people. I AM the radiations of Light. Therefore I cannot divide Myself. I have no religion. I come to claim all.

⁴ The life circuit I AM.

⁵ Intelligent on its own merit: The body will be a mirror of the intelligence of its own Devic Kingdom. It will become a radiation of supreme love and forgiveness. (Contemplate this!)

I shall not be content until I have restored this planet and made her whole in Me as a living headquarters for the Holy Mother.

Changing Your Garment

(This is a brief portion of a Message given at a class entitled: Changing Your Garment at the World Mother Center in Virginia, January 22, 1994)

The GodSelf is emerging more powerfully than ever before. It is the time of the Ascendence. And all those who have chosen to leave this planet: Go. The force of illumination is transmuting all the body cells, and you are being lifted into a new vibratory experience of Light and Love. There is everlasting life in this dimension.

I have programed you that you might readily accept the new vibrations of Light and Love. Every cell, every molecule, every atom, every organ, every tissue, every bone and muscle that makes up your body is now in agreement to register the I AM Presence in every cell. Every molecule accepts this. Even the bloodstream will carry the whole message of immortality.⁴ It is a joy to the soul.

I AM lifting you now, O My Planet Earth, to the Solar Logos who will say to you: "Come unto the Solar Fires of My own Being, the Sun of Me. And here you will be called LIGHT. And you will be known as the LIGHT HEADQUARTERS of the Heart Children." Do you hear Me now? Have you heard Me? Do you need more explanation than this? I fancy so.

Leaving this Earth as promised is only leaving the old dimension. Now let go. Detach, that you might be reclaimed in the glory of God's creation. There is a passageway, I say a passageway, a corridor, a duct, that you will be drawn through as you vibrate the new activity of the Lord. This passageway is but a corridor that will assist you in the vibration of alignment into this new dimension. It is a Creative Word that has embodied to assist you.

You have been called to serve on this planet. To leave the lower dimensions entirely that you might bring light to this planet and serve her well in this hour of her need and her light. If there is a restlessness amongst you, a tiredness perhaps, a fatigue, it is only to say to Me: My time has come. That you are weary of the old ways. Be still and know that I AM God, a living part of you now to be recognized within the body frame, within the corpuscles and the blood.

THE WHOLE BODY SHALL BECOME LIGHT.⁵ Wear the garment of light that you might do the work that you have come to do. For you cannot serve the Christ in the way that you have chosen unless you wear this garment of light. Please be aware of this as you enter the new dimension and have access to new information.

You have come a long way, My children, much has been done. I congratulate you all, workers on this planet. Your salvation is near as you return to Godhood from whence you came.

The Earth Be Blessed

Now glory pour upon this Earth. Rest her in My hand, My mighty hand of salvation. Let her be at peace: still, as all activity is still, for a moment. Even the rustle of leaves: be still that you might all together self-realize that the light is with you. And you are one with the Presence that abides strongly now on this Planet Earth.

My time has come. I can wait no longer. I AM the Supreme God of creation, of all creation, and I receive you back unto Me that I might be with you as a revelation of consciousness.

Moving now into the light, receive the light *within yourselves*⁶ and know that the light is with you, ever present as the new dawn.

Consciousness is the master. Remember that. It listens and it knows. Come to the light that all might be of light.⁷

Raise your thoughts to God Consciousness and voice your holy voice in words that are given, dropped like light petals into your m i n d . R e m e m b e r t h a t consciousness is master. That you are the master of all you survey, if you but stand with Me, the Lord Thy God, the Creator of all things.⁸

Let us meditate on the Light Body we are now. And through this meditation see the light, the living light, within every cell and molecule of your being. And so it is written: I will come again and restore these bodies to light, and save this Earth and give her greater peace than that which she has ever known.

I bless you, children of the light. I AM Sanat Kumara. The Keeper of The Days. I have been with you for a very long time. Indeed, a long, long time. Chapter closed. We have a new book entirely. Let us read it together. It is of My hand.

An Etheric Broadcast Follows

(An "etheric broadcast" is a method of sending forth the Words of Office to those intended. It can reach many ears or a few. Often it goes to planetary regions beyond this Earth. - Crystal)

I call upon the Earth now to establish her body of light as a heavenly presence. Let the message go forth as a force. A storm of joyous Presence enters this Earth and moves into her vortexes, her very centers of being, her chakras, out through her ley lines. (Creative Force is emerging and it must go through Earth herself.)

Even as we receive through our blood, so does she. Let the Earth be still that she might know I AM. Let this light go forth as joy and love. She deserves no more to wait. In this day and hour let the planet show her light. Let the planet breathe her sun.⁹ Let the valleys rejoice! And let the glory be told! Let the fountain be

⁶LET THE MORTAL SELF GO! It is but a figment of your imagination.

⁷There is a Universal Law of Oneness that says: When Truth has personified by the one chosen in the time given, then all Man - or consciousness - at-one, partakes of that revelation and that personification. Thus when Jesus overcame death by His consciousness, you also have overcome it. This is Law. There is no death. He translated this into Law. Now, in the days, "Group Man" or Group Awareness will realize together at a vibrational level; that all "Man" or humankind has ascended, wears the resurrected body of light and lives as immortal being. This triggers a new world. Once this Group consciousness identifies itself in Universal Law as a body that is awakened, no man shall know death nor shall he or she be caught in between two worlds. When Jesus walked, he meant it for all. He was a universal being. When the Group consciousness (those members who are going to demonstrate this) connect as one mind, then all men are free. THIS IS THE UNIVERSAL MIND DESCENDING. Creative Power then emerges as the light.

⁸The essence of who you are.

⁹The Planetary Prince is coming! (Received as I wrote this last sentence. February 9, 1994) There was a joyous expectancy in this announcement.)

loosed of eternal life, and all things receive of Her that is the Light, the brilliance of God.

Let the Name of Jesus be heard like a mighty drum that sounds into all corners of this Earth: This is the Second Coming in every center, every limb of tree, through all the rivers -- Laugh and Be joyous. For indeed I have come.

Let the centers be opened. Let the great storm commence, as the light begins to enter the planet as never before. I have come as revelation.

The storm will carry My words into every nation, through all oceans, up into the hills My sound will be heard. It is the Creative Intelligence Emerging. Earth I call upon you: Be lighted! Sing a song of consciousness that has yet to be heard.

Yea, the Pyramid of Giza trembles as the star systems rejoice as the planet enters into light. THIS IS THE EMERGENCE. And he who cares for Me will enter in.

This is planetary resurrection. My call is sounded. Enter into light. Have I died for naught? I have planted My Seed in you that I might live. Why cover up that which is within you? You are withholding God's Child.

And those who walk upon this planet know that it is indeed holy ground. And every blade of grass is part of her. And all that lives and breathes is sacred unto her and part of herself as being.

This planet wears her light body, her garment of light, as never before, I have flushed out her weakness. Let her show you who she is, for she is a planet of light.

(Let the Light go forth) into Florida. Texas be lighted. And It (the Light) continues through Wyoming and up into Maine and Colorado. Then returns to Virginia. So the train of light is carried from place to place (lighting the ground you walk on) as each center and vortex is lit up like a glorious candle, a circular flame.

That which cannot stand the light here must be gone or transmuted into the light. Let the planet be sent now into the light and glorified as never before, for she has given so much, so very much, and so little has been returned.

My precious planet Earth, be resurrected, be lit with the Flame of Jesus The Christ now known as Sananda.¹⁰ We wish you well. Into every corner of this planet, light, peace, joy, and goodwill. Planet, take your place among the stars. Be risen now. And stand your ground, for you will be a great light unto all the planets of this system.

"Here, children, rest in the place of abundance, for you have much abundance here." Learn the rhythms of the Earth for she will dance for you. "All that you need has been provided. Do not destroy but live in the glory with Me," says your Planet Earth. "Abide with me. And we will live together in joy and harmony, peace on earth."

And now breathe in the light. Breathe in the light of this new planetary system as it is solidifying. And that which is no longer needed on this planet, be transmuted. And all those who cannot live in light be gone. It is her time and she is given light. And she will care no more for you, lest you care for her, for there must be harmony in Spirit. That is My Law.¹¹

Those who love her, stay. Remain here. Abide with her. Cherish her. And go ye into light also. I have registered all life upon this planet in a new body of light. This is Sanat Kumara. Peace now as the Devas attend to My message and glorify the King and Queen. I have restored the planet to light. She is requalified in light.... I AM Sanat Kumara and the Voice of the Ancient of Days bequeathing to you a new world, ascended world of ancient Godhood.

¹⁰The Lord has risen.

¹¹My Word. The overthrow of kingdoms, and of lost civilizations are done by the Word. It is a sound on My Breath, an activity of My Consciousness, that decrees it is no more.

THE SOLAR FLAME

Every avenue is closed but this. There is no other way but the light. If you remember who you are, it will be easier. Try to remember. Don't force it. Just listen to the soul. And when you listen, know that it is true. Let every cell and molecule, every atom of your body accept the light. Let the bloodstream carry the light to every part of your being. And as this light travels, know that it is I written and recorded as memory awakened in every cell.

Let the body come alive as new intelligence, vital and Supreme, requalified in the light as the light and never to die.

God is life. Have you come upon this consciousness? Awaken. If you love Me, you will love Life Intended. And darkness shall be no more. Be quickened and glorify thy Father-Mother on High, for this is the time of ascendance. We come to claim you back to Us. And to lift you into Our rhythms of light and love, much joy.

Hear the voices of the angels. They carry you to new places. Believe upon this¹². It is true. The body is the temple of God. It is not to be wasted. NO HUMAN DEATH. Know that it (the body) is light. And waste Me not nor confuse Me with another. You have a new heaven on Earth. Be there and be crucified no longer - for I have a plan for you well set in My Intelligence.

¹²Have I not requalified you through My Son who abides in your heart now as your own energy pattern?

And now, let go that I might be the full Presence of God in you as the GodSelf. Toil not. I AM already with you. Behold the light.

LIGHTING THE FLAME

The Specials Volume 6, No. 3

August 12, 2000
Ojai, California

Breathe in now the whole Spirit of your integrated Self, the GodSelf.

Let this presence that is the whole you begin to lighten your world.

Remember that you are much more than you are conscious of at this present moment - much more. You can expand your conscious awareness as a group spirit gathered here today. Remember that all I AM, you are. In My Spirit, you are complete. You can have all that you wish for and hope for, all that your visions proclaim for you and for our planet as you surrender into the I AM Presence, the Christ in you, the global spirit. The time is now.

Let us be still in the quiet of our person. Let us know the truth and accept it, our whole being. Let us accept the Universe creativity that is our right and our light. Let us never forget moment by moment, second by second. Let us live this principle of divine activity of the soul and the Spirit. Let us do for others what we would do for ourselves. Let us live in the prosperity of the Christ within.

Be still and feel the presence of the Holy Mother, Mary, as she lights your heart's Flame and reveals to you your great and powerful and wondrous I AM. Now let us begin this ceremony of lighting the Flame within every human heart.

Peace.

From The Will of the Masters
Seminar

August 12-13, 2000

When I was meditating, a thought came to me. With the lighting of the heart and the conscious affirmation of your true being, be aware now that every motive of your heart, every desire and every vision that you have is being fulfilled and carried forth by the Creative Spirit, by the Creative Force, by the Creative Power. This is automatic. Now, if you begin to be conscious of it and reflect on it and accept it, your subconscious mind will act on it, but we have to empower that Creative Spirit that indwells us.

Spirit wants to embody Herself¹ as form complete and as your supply in all ways! But we need to enforce it by our acceptance. Can you believe this! Because it is true!

There is now on this plane a conscious union between the Christ Inner Voice or the awakened Christ Consciousness and the Creative Power. They are joined. And everything I AM is yours!
Let the Christ Consciousness flow!

The moment you have a connection with your true Self and the Voice of the true Self, the Creative Power is moving out to embody Herself as I AM. Only we can stop it by saying: Yes, but I can't do this, I don't have the talent.

Whatever it is that we reflect back into our consciousness that negates this miraculous sphere may well deter and even stop the objectification of the spiritual energy into form. Recall Jesus said, "I have meat that you know not of."

Just say yes to truth! And the truth will make you free. The subconscious mind works at the level of your agreement. And the subconscious mind is the Spirit of God! This is your breakthrough!²

The Inner Voice and the Creative Power are one. The Higher Mind consistency carries the two as one. But let us not subject this new dispensation to old world concepts. Let us know the truth and let the truth embody itself as the light, life, of the world.

Let. It is practice, isn't it? Much like a muscle that we haven't used. You are going to let the Creative Power³ work for you.

You are in a new space. It is a new dispensation given through the Father's love for you. Soon you will sense our understanding and participation in this energy. Because it is stabilized in the Mother, it is reacting in a rhythm far different than previously. It is completely and lovingly all for you in your ascension as Son/ Sun of God. It releases itself immediately for your good. I want you happy on planet Earth.

What occurs when we rise out of the limited sense of self into awareness of the GodSelf - our superconscious mind and solar awareness - is that we ascend into a community spirit, a group spirit.

We as human beings will not know death. We will conquer death. Death will no longer be necessary as we will walk in the Spirit and speak with the Voice of Truth. We will be that which we have come to be: the holy city of God. You can out picture as any age that is convenient and appropriate. You can live eternally because you are your heart's flame and everything is objectified from your heart's flame.

Nothing in this world should dictate to you, absolutely nothing. Everything comes from within. Hear your Voice! Listen to your truth. Reveal it! Everything comes from who you are, your true self.

So, what we are talking about is the emergence but not an emergence of an avatar but our emergence as the Christ Self! This is the real emergence.

If you live by the Christ mind, you live abundantly. Live abundantly by the fruits of your Christ revelation.

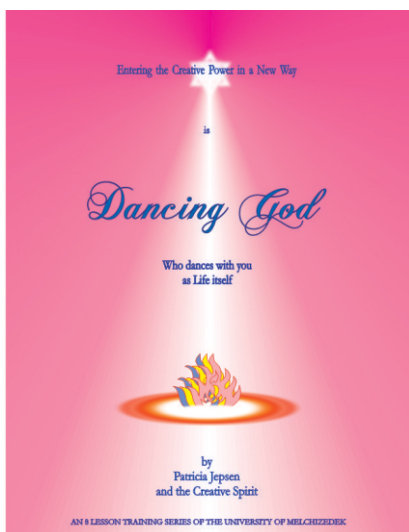

It is imperative that we love our Christ Self within, the GodSelf who we are in truth. That is our identity. You are the GodSelf. You are powerful. You are precious. You are beautiful. You are incredible. You are the Christ light brought to earth. Let Me embody as you.

There is a revelation - and it's in The University Papers, number 153 - that announces that our inner voice, intuitive knowing, and what we call the creative power are fused. That is new.

And what that means is that there is nothing between my thought, and the ability to have it take form. How idea takes form will come by inspiration and by revelation. Now students will be encouraged to focus on Higher Mind capability and capacity rather than memorizing by rote the limited concepts of a fastly deteriorating world program or world mind. A new door has been opened. We are invited to walk through.

This is an exciting and stimulating era, as we accept the program of the whole Self and join universally with all that we are in the spiraling consciousness of our heart's Flame.

Live consciously in Truth.

Dancing God (Book format)

THE SOLAR LIGHT AND THE TRANSMUTATION OF THE FLESH

The University Papers No. 106

A Message From The Ancient Of Days who presides over all change in the solar records

The fusion of man/consciousness and the Creator dissolves the body as you know it. When We dissolve the body in this initiation you are prepared to be consciously aware of truth in any cycle or degree. You are able to hold a body of form and appear as though you were that body, yet you are free of the body containment as you have experienced this on your planet.

Gradually, as the body disappears, you will become more familiar and adept at creating a body form at will. The body appearance will be only that: an appearance. You will have control over your thoughts as form and will be able to release energy in such a way as to manifest anything necessary, including the appearance of a physical body, yet be free of the entrapment of the illusion.

Oh, foolish mortals! How glad I am to allow this message to go forth. It is for those who have waited patiently, a signal of a new dimension. I have been waiting for a long time...to energize this message and to release it to those who can take it and apply it in their walk.

As the fusion takes place, the body outpicturing as your form, is released into the fire of new creation. When that occurs, there will be instruction to manifest a lighter body that is a thoughtform of the Christ. This new body is radiated from you as light. The light forms of itself the body appearance you need in this planetary change. This is a cornerstone for a new creation.

You, as an earth people, are being recircuited. What a glorious time this is! As you, people of this Earth planet, return to God consciousness and ancient teachings of Melchizedek, We watch. We collect as close as We can to this Earth, and We observe with wonder the ultimate change in process that will recreate you as a people and as a planet into a new dimension of thought and desire. We are ready to receive you back as God's children.

The Universe Creator

The Solar Vision is now being restored. What a revelation this is, as one with the Father and Mother you return and take your place beside us, your solar partners, your friends and your neighbors in the many planetary systems and galaxies of the universe.

You will be clothed in light. This is the living light of the Creator Himself. His glorious presence will be with you and you will be welcomed back in your solar place as a friend.

Perhaps there are those of you who have recall and can remember the Melchizedek Teachings that are released to you in government installments in the night while you are sleeping and in the times of meditation when you are contemplating The One. There will be nothing unfamiliar to you as you go through the gate, ascend to the light and walk onto the solar platform that is your own ceremony of welcome.

I assure you that there is nothing to fear. And already you have been readied for that moment of God-fusion and the solar light. Detach. Let Be what is. Walk forward. - Sananda - For have I not given you that assurance myself, that I am with you? Let no one be lost or forgotten. I shall return again and again until all are returned to me.

The fusion that is in the process of moving you from one dimension into the next is all encompassing. It is fusion of body, soul, mind and Spirit. And in this way God takes you into Himself and reveals to you His way. (See Hebrews 8, New Testament which contains the New Covenant as well as the explanation of the Law behind it.)

Keep your focus in your body of light. What appears as fatigue, old age, or sickness has no existence, no life, in your body of light! Stay with the light. Your body is the fountain of the Creator.

"I have come that you might have life and have it more abundantly,"

THE SOLAR LIGHT AND THE TRANSMUTATION OF THE FLESH

These were the words of Jesus who entered this world to overturn it. Now claim what he has done for yourself. His achievement is yours.

A Word About Abundance And Your Ability To Supply yourself:

To enable yourself to release your abundant nature, your conscious supply, there must be complete detachment from all possessions, people and past ideas. This is imperative if you are to be ready to manifest the immediate need instantly with thought and mind on God.

Let's go deeper into the words above, probe them, examine them and then let them catch fire in our hearts. For in them is the key to total freedom and oneness with all life.

Your consciousness must be free to produce: health, wealth, true happiness, harmony of spirit. The unfoldment of your creativity also is dependent on your activity in Truth. Activate the principles by being one with them.

When you are detached from all ribbons of life, the bonds of attachment that really cause you to slow down your process of manifestation and realization of Truth in your own being, then you are free. Come to the place of freedom and here in this place of freedom rests the Kingdom of God, the miraculous power for infinite learning and achievement in the spiritual realms.

When you are detached there are no controlling thoughtforms around you to cloud your mind and influence your heart. Only in Being is I AM.

The moment you reach that state of awareness that is I AM consciousness, there vibrates the sacred power of Be-ing. To touch Being is to release that power to Be. This then becomes I AM THAT I AM, the perfect expression of God/ Truth right now. Touch the place of Being and release all into that place of instant manifestation, o b j e c t i f i c a t i o n and personification of living Truth.

Create from the Source. The Presence knows only Itself. I AM That AM.

Here Is The Recipe For The Direct Manifestation Of Your Idea:

1. Pour all the love that you can muster into your vision or idea. Love is the fulfiller.
2. Let no destructive, negative, thought register. Nor let doubt enter your system. Entertain only positive energy. Hold your vision high in the light of the Creator. You are the watch guard of that vision or idea. It will manifest. With clear vision man can do anything.
3. Your subconscious wants to cooperate!
4. Do not look back. Stay centered. To look back is to reconnect to the old ways.

The God Consciousness of the Creator contains everything you need. Behold the light within yourself as the Creator. Let the power of peace and joy be with you in this revelation. Truth is never empty. It is filled with life.

The instant you experience My Spirit you are free.

Free to roam the Universe at will. As everlasting Light. God Consciousness is yours in Me.

I AM A Living River As Be-ing

When you release the death program within your own being, you enter the world of light. Here you find complete detachment from the threads of mortal life. You have no thought to attach anymore because it is no part of your awareness. God remains your focus and your intent. Your power is in that. You wear the robes of life.

Focused neither left nor right, you are in essence the life itself. If you are present there can be no other moment but this one. This is the place of unity with all life -- without attachment. You are present in the moment and I AM. Let us call this place focused Being.

Can you see that a healing is

THE SOLAR LIGHT AND THE TRANSMUTATION OF THE FLESH

not focused Being. Correcting what you perceive as error is not focused Being. Wherever I AM is perfection. I AM perfection Itself. Harmony exists in Me. If you are attached to the body and delight in healing it, you are in the death program and you are not detached from mortal existence! This is a powerful statement and I ask you to meditate upon it. It holds much energy within its words.

I AM The Body Of Light

The personal sense of self, the ego, must return to the Spirit. It must not be eliminated, only returned to the Father's House where man and God are one. The process and the journey of returning the ego self to God or the High Self is the initiate's path, the journey into light. So strong is the Divine Presence that It establishes Itself as your individual realization and gives back to you all that I AM. The Grand Ego then takes over. This is the solar body and the transmutation of the flesh of which you are a part.

Even the slightest attachment can disturb the placement of your Higher Self as your own conscious awareness. Watch and pray! Be as the eagle that sits atop the Great Tree of Peace! Watch over your thoughts and your feelings and lovingly embrace the Earth and all upon her.

¹Sananda is the risen name of Jesus of Nazareth. The Planetary Prince is the Consciousness overseeing the planet as a ruler and judge. He is in charge of the planetary change at this time.

A Daily Reminder: Judgment is attachment, You observe, but you do not judge.

To sum up: To be in focused Being is to be without attachment to anyone or anything. Be free in Me! Focused Being is the place of unity with all life, yet complete freedom.

What was a moment ago may be no longer valid and true.

What is true is now. Complete detachment proves this. Have no gods before Me.

Do what you must do. But do it with Love. In the nature of God all is Love.

Welcome to the Solar Kingdom of Sananda, who is Planetary Prince.¹

BLESS THIS EARTH.

*Speak this at your morning meditation
As a Priest or Priestess might speak.
Flower your garden with this Word.
Bask in the loving, grateful glow of the Mother Flame*

*As you meet Her with the Word.
Now as you speak the Word of Power,
Given to you from on High,
You are one with the Eternal Flame.
Feel Her in your heart rising
And say again:
BLESS THIS EARTH,
THIS LAND ABOUT ME, AND MY LIFE.*

*Receive the warmth of the flickering, ever-present Flame.
You are a Priest and Priestess now,
Sent by God,
To guard Her still,
And to revel in Her Light.
Now take your place.
It is Time.*

BLESS THIS EARTH.
